

Day 20: Prince of Peace

Isaiah 9:6 For a child will be born for us, a son will be given to us, and the government will be on his shoulders. He will be named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.

What an interesting title to hold. I have heard of the Prince of England, or the Prince of Norway. I have heard of those monarchical titles before. I understand that concept. They are the sons of the king of whatever country they are born in.

And yet Jesus is a Prince of Peace. He is the Son of the King and His kingdom is one that brings and provides peace.

Imagine a life without rest, without calm, without peace. A life without all of the blessings that come with peace of mind, peace of heart, peace in your soul. A life of constant conflict. That is the life that exists for us without Christ.

But with Christ, we can know peace. What is that old cliché? No Christ, no peace. Know Christ, know peace.

Despite being cliché, there is truth. Knowing Jesus as Savior and Lord means experiencing peace. Today, rest in Jesus knowing that you don't have to have every answer. Trust Him that He does. And rest in peace in His love and mercy.
