

Day 13: Week 2 Recap and Look Ahead

Philippians 2:7 “...he made himself nothing by taking on the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness...

This past week, we considered how much God loved the world by sending Jesus into it. We also considered some powerful truths affirmed by the incarnation of Christ.

As we prepare for the third week of Advent, take some time to re-read one or two of the days that were meaningful.

And then ask yourself, what truths of the Scripture were reaffirmed for you this week? What promises of God were you reminded of this past week? What promises of God that still lay head excite you as you reflect on God’s faithfulness?

The Third Week of Advent we consider the Light that shines from the cradle and the cross.

Has the light of Jesus broken through the darkness of sin in your life? Have you been brought into the light of life through salvation in Jesus Christ?
