

“The Word and the Wonder”

John 1:1, 14 / Luke 2:1-20

Christmas Eve Message – Wednesday, December 24, 2025

1. Heaven Touches Earth (John 1:1, 14; Luke 2:1-7)

A. (Rom 5:8) "But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." NKJV

2. Heralds in the Fields (Luke 2:8-14)

A. (1 Cor 15:3–4) "³ For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴ and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures," NKJV

3. Hearts Full of Praise (Luke 2:15-20)

A. (Rom 12:1) "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service." NKJV

Message Write-up:

Series Bumper

Every story has a beginning. Ours starts in a garden—where peace was shattered, but a promise was spoken. A promise of rescue. Of redemption. Of a coming King.

That promise echoed through generations... spoken by prophets, believed by the faithful, and longed for by a weary world.

Then—He came. Not with fanfare, but in humility. Not to a throne, but to a manger. Born into darkness to bring light.

This is more than a holiday tradition—it's the unfolding of God's plan. From the Fall to the fulfillment. From sin to salvation. It is the hope the world is searching for.

This season, we're not just celebrating a birth—we're following a story. THE story. And it's one we're still part of today.

So, join us as we step into the adventure, trace the promise, and see the Savior. This is... The Christmas Story.

Social Media Post:

The Creator stepped into creation, and everything changed. This Wednesday, celebrate the wonder of Jesus—God made flesh—as we conclude The Christmas Story with “The Word and the Wonder.” It's more than a birth; it's the beginning of new life.