A. “I’m afraid too many churchgoers today are listening but not learning. They are spectators, not students. They are passive, not participating. And that’s because we who teach often give them cut flowers that easily fade and wilt, rather than showing them how to grow plants for themselves—to discover firsthand the truth that God has revealed in His Word.” Howard Hendricks

2. Your Walk in the Absence of Others (12b)

A. (2 Pet 1:5-8) ⁵ But also for this very reason, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue knowledge, ⁶ to knowledge self-control, to self-control perseverance, to perseverance godliness, ⁷ to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness love. ⁸ For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. NKJV

3. Your Walk is for the Pleasure of God (13)

A. (Psalm 37:4) Delight yourself also in the LORD, And He shall give you the desires of your heart. NKJV
