

POSITIONING FOR THE MIRACULOUS: BIBLICAL PRINCIPLES FOR WHEN YOU NEED GOD TO MOVE

BISHOP RC BLAKES, JR.

You are exhausted. You've checked every box, held the family together, managed the team, built the career, and smiled through debilitating disappointment. But underneath the accomplishment, there is a quiet, desperate ache. You don't just need a good therapist or a better life strategy right now—you need a miracle. Sometimes life backs us into a corner where human hands can no longer fix the fracture. We need the Holy Spirit. We need the God who steps into impossible situations.

MARK 5:27-28

When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, because she thought, If I just touch his clothes, I will be healed.

If you are at the end of your rope and fighting through the compounded losses of this season, here are the biblical principles to position yourself for a miracle.

#1 ACKNOWLEDGE YOUR BANKRUPTCY AND ABANDON YOUR PLAN B

There is a dangerous comfort in having a backup plan. But miracles rarely happen in the safety of Plan B. Look at the woman with the issue of blood in our base text. She spent all she had on doctors and only grew worse. Her miracle began the moment she realized her human resources were bankrupt. We have to surrender our emotional and financial lives to the Holy Spirit entirely. The text says, "because she thought, If I just touch his clothes, I will be healed." She stopped reaching for a medical solution and reached desperately for a divine one.

PROVERBS 3:5-6

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.

When we lean on our own understanding, we block the miraculous. The Holy Spirit is asking you to stop trying to co-regulate with a broken system and start trusting a sovereign God. Your desperation is not a sign of failure; it is the breeding ground for a breakthrough. Stop masking your pain with performance.

Your true value isn't in what you can fix, but in who you belong to.

Quote: "God cannot give us a happiness and peace apart from Himself, because it is not there. There is no such thing." - C.S. Lewis

HOW-TO: Identify the "Plan B" you are leaning on right now. Write it down, pray over it, and formally release it to God today.

PRAYER FOR SURRENDER

Holy Spirit, I am out of answers. I surrender my backup plans and put my total trust in Your power.

Quote: "I've learned that you can't have everything, but you can have the things that matter." - Lauryn Hill

#2 MOVE TOWARD JESUS THROUGH THE CROWD OF YOUR CRITICS

When you need a miracle, there will always be a crowd telling you to be quiet. Think of blind Bartimaeus in Mark 10. When he heard Jesus was passing by, he yelled out. The crowd rebuked him and told him to shut up. But he cried out all the more! So many of us are letting the consumer church culture, man-made religion, or the opinions of cynical people keep us paralyzed. You have to be willing to look foolish for your faith.

HEBREWS 11:6

And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.

If you want the miraculous, you have to earnestly seek Him, even when the crowd of your own doubts and the people around you tell you it's hopeless. You cannot let the general spiritualism of this age or the principalities of doubt silence your cry. You are a kingdom citizen. Use your voice, and refuse to be invisible any longer.

Quote: "Faith does not eliminate questions. But faith knows where to take them." - Elisabeth Elliot

HOW-TO: Stop consulting your critics. Take a 24-hour fast from social media and complaining friends, and use that time to cry out to God alone.

PRAYER FOR BOLDNESS

Lord, silence the noise of the crowd. Give me the courage to cry out to You without shame.

Quote: "You pray for rain, you gotta deal with the mud too. That's a part of it." - Denzel Washington

#3 SPEAK TO THE MOUNTAIN, NOT JUST ABOUT THE MOUNTAIN

We spend too much time describing our problems instead of declaring our promises. Jesus didn't tell us to talk about the mountain; He told us to speak to it. You are facing financial pressure, physical health crises, and a desperate need for clarity about decisions. Stop rehearsing your grief and start declaring God's sovereignty.

MARK 11:23

Truly I tell you, if anyone says to this mountain, Go, throw yourself into the sea, and does not doubt in their heart but believes that what they say will happen, it will be done for them.

The text reminds us that what we say in faith matters. Jesus zeroes in on the heart that "believes that what they say will happen." You have to align your words with the agreement of God. Your mouth is either building a monument to your inner wounds or a bridge to your miracle. Speak the word. Speak life over your marriage, over your manhood, over your family foundation.

Quote: "Faith is taking the first step even when you don't see the whole staircase." - Martin Luther King Jr.

HOW-TO: Find three scriptures that directly address your current crisis. Speak them out loud over your situation every morning before you check your phone.

PRAYER FOR DECLARATION

God, forgive me for magnifying my problems. Today, I command my mountains to move in the name of Jesus.

Quote: "I will not be distracted by the noise, the chatter, or the setbacks." - Tyler Perry

I know you are tired. I know the nights are painfully long and the pillows are wet with tears you refuse to let anyone else see. You have carried the weight of invisibility, the sting of compounded losses, and the heavy ache of a heart breaking in real time. But hear me today: the God of heaven sees you. He counts every tear. He is intimately acquainted with your grief and your secret fears. You are not forgotten, and you are not forsaken. The miracle is not just that He changes the situation; the miracle is that He holds you together while the storm is raging, until the wind finally bows to His name. Hold on. Just hold on.

Your breakthrough is on the way.

GROUP DISCUSSION POINTS / REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Where in your life are you currently relying on a "Plan B" instead of trusting the Holy Spirit for a miracle?

Who or what represents the "crowd" trying to silence your faith right now?

How can you shift your language this week from talking about your mountains to speaking to them?

Share a time when you experienced a debilitating disappointment, and how God sustained you through it.