

Mount Vernon Students Discussion Guide • Week 3

Congrats on making it to week three!
Break the ice with highs and lows or a fun question.

Questions

Have you ever lost something? What was it? How did you feel when you realized it was lost?

Did you find it? How did it feel when you found what you had lost?

How do you think Mary and Joseph feel?

If you responded to your parents like Jesus does, what would happen?

What is the difference between wisdom and knowledge?

Matt said to live out what we read, what does that mean? How do we do that?

Why are Christians sometimes called hypocrites? Do you think this is valid or not?

How do we love others well with this notion of Christians being hypocrites in the air?

How do other folks react when you say you are a Christian?

What does your fruit look like? Do you find yourself caring for others or only for yourself?

What does your relationship with Jesus look like?

Have you had a moment where you surrendered to him in belief and baptism?

What was that like?

Are you curious about what a relationship with Jesus looks like?

Are you still figuring out what it means to surrender to Jesus as your savior?

Like any relationship, it is best helped by spending time with the person you are in relationship with. This week take a few minutes each day to spend time with Jesus. Work out a plan as a small group to develop individual plans and how you can hold each other accountable.

Wherever you are in your relationship with Jesus please know that He loves you, accepts you as you are, and invites you into an abundant life with him as savior and Lord.
