

Small-Group Discussion Questions

This week my hope is students get practical. We can always pray for people, read our Bibles, and go to church. However, what things through the week is God calling them to? Ways to serve in their neighborhoods and families?

- a. What was something from the message that stood out to you and why?
- b. What places or actions do you think God may be calling you?
- c. Does age matter when it comes to making a difference in the world? Why or why not?
- d. Who is someone young you've heard about that has made a difference for Jesus?
- e. Out of your speech, way you live, love, faith and purity, which is the hardest for you? Which do you find the easiest? Why?
- f. Who in your life looks to you as a model or as an example and why? How does that affect the way you live?
- g. Who do you look to? A person that lives their life for Jesus on a regular basis.
- h. What does making a difference in the world even look like?
- i. Does making a difference in the world have to be this huge, nationally known type thing? Why or why not? Can it be something small and simple?
- j. How can you make a difference in the world around you this week?
