The Message—Notes

THE OBJECT OF YOUR HOPE MATTERS

So be strong and courageous, all you who put your hope in the Lord! ~ Psalm 31:24 (NLT)

It's hard to be strong and courageous if your hope is in anything other than the Lord. I hear people all the time talking about their hope, but sadly many of them are hoping in things that can't deliver like a political candidate, a better job, or even the lottery. Because we all know how sketchy those are, our hope is timid and we have learned to hedge our bets.

Unfortunately, we tend to do the same thing with God. We don't know Him for who He truly is so we play it safe instead of courageously going all in when He shows us opportunities to be part of His plans in the world.

My quest for myself—and my prayer for each of you—is that we begin to live in the strength of God, and boldly follow Him wherever He leads. We have a living hope in the Lord God that is far more than wishful thinking. It's a sure bet! So, the only question is when, not if, God will fulfill His promises to us.

Love y'all,
Pastor Larry
