My Decision Today

- I am accepting Jesus as my Savior.
I want to talk to an elder about being baptized.
I am repenting after wandering away from my commitment to Jesus.
I want to be a member of Real Life Church.
I want to serve on a ministry team at Real Life Church.

The Message—Notes

AN INCLUSIVE INVITATION

Then Jesus said, 'Come to Me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you. Let Me teach you, because I am humble and gentle at heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy to bear, and the burden I give you is light.' ~ Matthew 11:28-30 (NLT)

Jesus doesn't care about your 'before.' He offers the most inclusive invitation you'll ever get. 'All of you' is unqualified. There are no exclusions or fine print. The gospel is for everyone—regardless of their victim status, past struggles with sin, or present doubts. Everyone is invited to come to Jesus.

Why do so few people respond if everyone is invited? I think there are as many reasons as there are people. I suspect some people think they have done things they believe just can't be forgiven. Others think it's insulting that God would judge them. For many more I think it's just the distractions of a busy life. The irony is that Jesus says in this passage that He will give rest to the weary. But the weary are saying, 'I'm too busy and worn out to come.'

Maybe you've heard that church is an exclusive club. Maybe you feel like that's probably true. Let me assure you that while Jesus says He is the exclusive way to heaven, He is also the most inclusive Savior the world has ever seen. If your church experience hasn't reflected Jesus that way, I'm sorry. I encourage you to come to Jesus and experience Him—His invitation is open!

Love y'all,
Pastor Larry
