My Decision Today

- I am accepting Jesus as my Savior.
- I want to talk to an elder about being baptized.
- I am repenting after wandering away from my commitment to Jesus.
- I want to be a member of Real Life Church.
- I want to serve on a ministry team at Real Life Church.
- Other: _____

The Message—Notes

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

“The Lord is like a father to His children, tender and compassionate to those who fear Him.” ~ Psalm 103:13

God truly is a good, good father. He shows us men what it means to be a good father. And while we should always do our very best to be as much like Him as possible, we need to give ourselves some grace, too. I don't want to imply that we can just give a “plenty good enough” effort to our fathering.

We need to go all in, but we also need to recognize that we aren't going to pitch a no hitter every game. So, when you try to pitch your best slider but it goes straight across the plate and the batter hits it out of the park, don't give up. Step back up on the mound and give it your best on the very next pitch.

For the rest of us, we need to also recognize the effort our fathers (or husbands for you ladies) are putting in. I realize that sometimes those guys choose to sit on the bench when they are needed on the mound, and we need to encourage them to get back in the game when that happens. But when he's out there doing the best he can, even if it's not that good, cheer for him. Help him want to get better and win more often.

Love y'all,
Pastor Larry
