The Message—Notes

EMBRACE GODLY SORROW

“For the kind of sorrow God wants us to experience leads us away from sin and results in salvation. There’s no regret for that kind of sorrow. But worldly sorrow, which lacks repentance, results in spiritual death.” ~ 2 Corinthians 7:10 (NLT)

Sorrow is an unavoidable part of the human experience. From the small disappointments of everyday life to the profound grief of significant loss, we all face moments when our hearts are heavy. In these times, it’s crucial to understand that sorrow, when viewed through the lens of faith, can be a powerful tool for spiritual growth and transformation.

The apostle Paul, in his second letter to the Corinthians, draws a sharp distinction between two types of sorrow: godly grief and worldly grief. He emphasizes that while both forms of sorrow may feel similar in their emotional impact, their outcomes are vastly different. Understanding this difference is key to navigating our sorrows in a way that aligns with God’s purpose for our lives.

Godly sorrow comes from recognizing our sins and shortcomings in light of God’s holiness. This sorrow leads us to repentance—a profound change of heart and mind that turns us away from sin and toward God. It is a sorrow that acknowledges our need for God’s grace and forgiveness, and it produces a deep sense of humility and dependence on Him.

To experience the redemptive power of godly sorrow, we must first cultivate a heart that is sensitive to the Holy Spirit’s conviction. This involves regular self-examination and a willingness to acknowledge our sins honestly. When we feel the weight of our wrongdoing, we should not shy away from it but bring it before God in prayer, seeking His forgiveness and guidance.

Scripture assures us that God is near to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit (Psalm 34:18). Our sorrow, when surrendered to Him, becomes a tool in His hands to shape us into the image of Christ. Through repentance, we experience God’s mercy and are restored to right relationship with Him.

Love y’all,
Pastor Larry
