My Decision Today

- I am accepting Jesus as my Savior.
- I want to talk to an elder about being baptized.
- I am repenting after wandering away from my commitment to Jesus.
- I want to be a member of Real Life Church.
- I want to serve on a ministry team at Real Life Church.
- Other:

The Message—Notes

I AM COMPLETE IN CHRIST

“For in Christ lives all the fullness of God in a human body. So you also are complete through your union with Christ, Who is the head over every ruler and authority.” ~ Colossians 2:9-10 (NLT)

I don’t know about you, but I spend a lot of time trying to be a better me. I study famous preachers to try and learn how they connect with their audience. I attend a lot of seminars and conferences to improve my abilities at my day job and as a pastor. I do all of that because I know there are things I can learn that I don’t yet know.

Some people might watch TikTok videos to learn how to cook better. Others take classes at the local community college to advance their careers. Maybe you just trade stories with others in your peer group about what’s worked for each of you.

There is nothing wrong with wanting to improve ourselves, but there is a danger that in our quest to learn new skills we can start to think of ourselves as substandard, or incomplete. Some people try to become complete by running from relationship to relationship. Others do it by burying themselves in work. Out of frustration, some give up and medicate their painful feelings with drugs or alcohol.

In his letter to the church at Colossae, the apostle Paul tells us that being complete is a byproduct of being in Christ. So we need to find our sense of completion in our union with Jesus. When we are surrendered to Him, we are complete! And we are always good enough for the tasks He has given us.

*Love y’all,
Pastor Larry*
