My Decision Today

- I am accepting Jesus as my Savior.
- I want to talk to an elder about being baptized.
- I am repenting after wandering away from my commitment to Jesus.
- I want to be a member of Real Life Church.
- I want to serve on a ministry team at Real Life Church.
- Other: _____

The Message—Notes

THE PRIORITY OF WORSHIP

“Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits in the place of honor at God’s right hand. Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth.” ~ Colossians 3:1-2 (NLT)

This past week I celebrated another birthday. It marked many decades since my physical life began. When I was younger, I thought that was a long time but it doesn’t feel like it’s been that long looking back from here. From where I am today, I find myself thinking more about eternity because I know that statistically I’m closer to the end of my life than the beginning. I know that may sound morbid to some people, but it doesn’t bother me because I know where this road leads to.

Many of you still look forward to more road in front of you than you have behind. A few are a little further up the road than I am. Regardless of how far you’ve traveled on the highway of life, the Apostle Paul reminds us in these verses of the priority of keeping our focus on heaven.

For some of us that’s especially hard because the understanding we have of heaven is mostly based on really weird movie plots and pop culture memes about what heaven is like. I think in part those tropes about heaven exist because the Bible doesn’t give us a complete picture of what heaven will be like. But it does give us enough of a peek to plant the desire for heaven in our hearts.

For those of us who love Jesus, a prerequisite for being raised to new life, the most significant truth about heaven is that we will be with Him there. We also know from the Bible that every sad thing will become untrue there. It will be like all the best trips you’ve ever taken, and like coming home to a place you’ve always longed for. So, keep looking up!

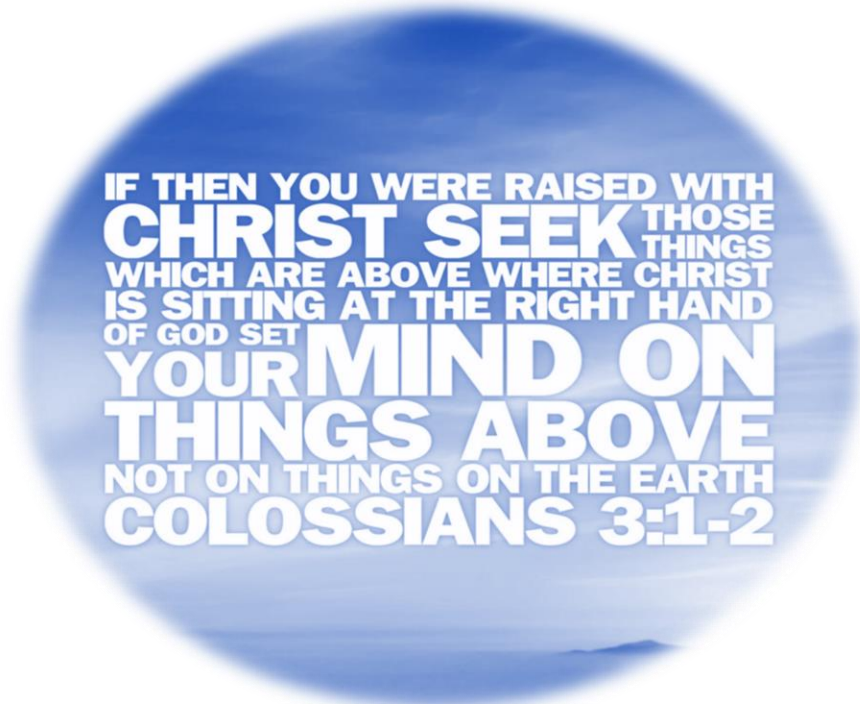

Love y’all,
Pastor Larry
