My Decision Today

- I am accepting Jesus as my Savior.
- I want to talk to an elder about being baptized.
- I am repenting after wandering away from my commitment to Jesus.
- I want to be a member of Real Life Church.
- I want to serve on a ministry team at Real Life Church.
- Other: _____

The Message—Notes

WORDS MATTER

“The words of the godly are a life-giving fountain; the words of the wicked conceal violent intentions.” ~ Proverbs 10:11 (NLT)

Words are important. Words are powerful. The Bible is full of cautions that remind us to be careful to choose our words well. Our words can build people up or tear them down. But as powerful as words are, we also need to recognize that people can manipulate their language to fool us.

Proverb 10:11 warns us that wicked people will try to conceal their real intent with words that hide the truth. That’s a very relevant warning for us in this election year. While I would like to assume that none of the people who make it to the top of their party ticket are wicked, that would be naive and foolish.

Don’t be deceived by words that hide violent intentions. Look beyond what those who want the seats of power are saying to what they do with their lives. Quite honestly, you won’t find many heroes among the lot, but there are some who clearly are trying to conceal their violent intentions.

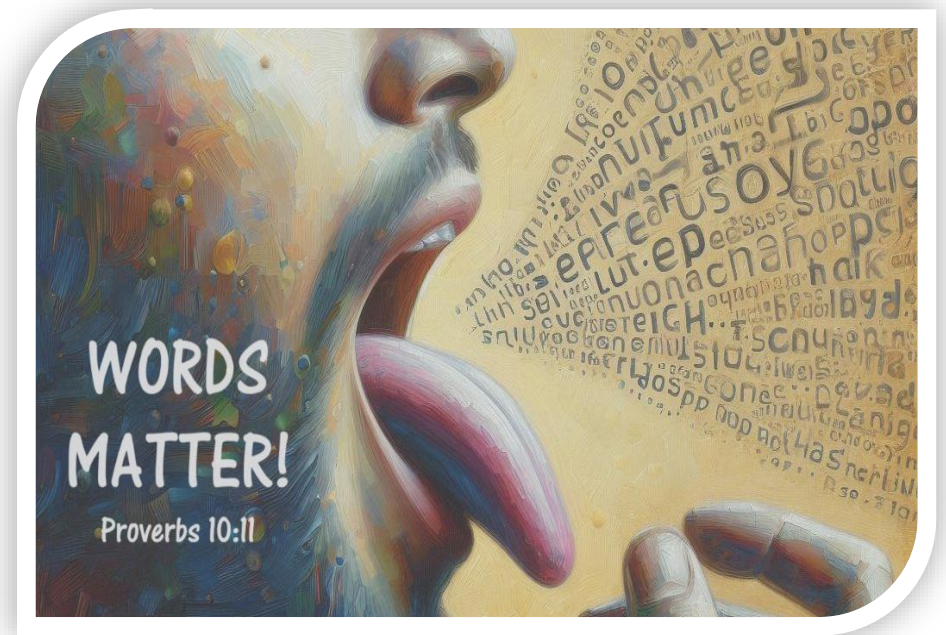

This proverb also promises that the words of the godly are life-giving. So that’s how we can ultimately determine the difference. Godly people’s words ultimately lead to life. When we look at the impact of the words people speak, it will either be life-giving or violent. Choose whose words you listen to carefully.

Love y’all,
Pastor Larry
