GOSPEL FOR EVERYDAY JOY | LUKE 15 | BRO. BARRY RALEY

- I need the gospel everyday because there's not enough good about me to live _____ here on earth.
- Joy is not a slave to situations but the result of being _____ in Jesus.
 - V. 15:1-2
- Verses 4-10 are two parables about joy in _____ when the lost are found.
- Jesus' third parable (about a lost son being found) emphasizes joy here on _____.
- Joy is more than choosing to be in a happy place, but living in a _____ place.
 - V. 15:11-24
- Find joy _____ you are instead of wanting God to make you happy somewhere else.
 - V. 15:25-32
- Recover the awe of our _____ and remember the horror of hell.

NFBC Constitution & By-Laws Review

- At the June quarterly business meeting, our Review Team (Doug Milliken, Jessie Creech, Tim Taylor, Carol Yates, Molly Ann Daniel, and Seth Haddock) proposed new language regarding the Church Covenant. Copies of this proposed Covenant are available for your review. You can provide, in writing, any suggestions, edits, or thoughts you have about the covenant by sending an email to info@nfbcauburn.com. All of your submissions will be considered by the Review Team before presenting the document back to the church for approval in September.
