ROMANS

- Written by Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles (1:1). What about 16:22?
- On his third missionary journey
- 55-56 AD
- Written in Corinth
- Written to the church at Rome made up of Jews and Gentiles
- Centered on God's plan of salvation and how His righteousness is made available, through faith, for all people
- Written as Paul prepares to come to Rome – “let's all be on the same page”

ROMANS

- Paul was laying foundations – WDTM?
- Rome wasn't the ultimate goal of his travels – he was wanting to go to Spain.

ROMANS

- Luther on Romans.... “This epistle (letter) is really the chief part of the New Testament, and is truly the purest Gospel. It is worthy not only that every Christian should know it word for word, by heart, but also that he should occupy himself with it every day, as the daily bread of the soul. We can never read it or ponder over it too much; for the more we deal with it, the more precious it becomes and the better it tastes” (LW 35:365).

ROMANS

- ... “In this epistle we thus find most abundantly the things that a Christian ought to know, namely, what is law, Gospel, sin, punishment, grace, faith, righteousness, Christ, God, good works, love, hope, and the cross; and also how we are to conduct ourselves toward everyone, be he righteous or sinner, strong or weak, friend or foe – and even toward our own selves” (LW 35:380).

ROMANS

- Theme – Romans 1:16-17 “I am not ashamed of the Gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes; first for the Jew, then for the Gentile. For in the Gospel a righteousness from God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written; “The righteous will live by faith.”
