Some commentary on Fear of the Lord ...

This reverential awe and admiring, submissive fear is foundational for all spiritual knowledge and wisdom. While the unbeliever may make statements about life and truth, he does not have true or ultimate knowledge until he is in a redemptive relationship of reverential awe with God.

The fear of the Lord is a state of mind in which one's own attitudes, will, feelings, deeds, and goals are exchanged for God's.

Psalms 41:1

*As the deer pants for the water brooks,
So pants my soul for You, O God.*

Have I not written to you excellent things  Of counsels and knowledge,  That I may make you know the certainty of  the words of truth,  That you may answer words of truth  To those who send to you?

<h2>Trusting God summary</h2>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Instruction in God's Word makes us wise with God's wisdom, not the worlds or our own wisdom.</li> <li>• We seek God's direction for all decisions and actions, big and small.</li> <li>• Our steps of faith are often shaky and uncertain, but God is directing us.</li> <li>• God shields and protects us all through our lives as we continue to trust Him.</li> <li>• Fear of man is the opposite of fear of the Lord and will lead us in the wrong direction.</li> <li>• Pride drives us away from trust in God.</li> </ul>	Prov. 3:5-6 Trust in the Lord with all your heart, And lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He shall direct your paths.
