

Callings for Life Ch. 1

Callings

Discuss at your tables?

Who is a personal hero of yours? What makes them so “heroic”?

Discuss at your tables...

What stood out to you as you read? What sticks in your mind even now?

- Topics, themes, stories, examples, etc.

How does the “myth of the one great thing” impact us?

- What do you spend a disproportionate amount of time doing?
- What irritates the most or causes you the most embarrassment if you fail?
- What are the bullet points in your Instagram bio? Are they the correct ones?

How does the “myth of the one great thing” impact us?

Even if we don't fall victim to this “myth,” we all need help balancing priorities and knowing what matters most for us to do

Faces, Places, and Spaces

- Faces = People
- Places = Physical areas
- Spaces = Titles, responsibilities, etc.

Faces, Places, and Spaces

- Does this clarify or confuse things?
- How can this tool help us find balance to vocations?
- Is there a time in your life when you would have benefited from knowing this?

Topics that people in the class mention...

- There is a very personal nature of vocation
- “Faces, Places, and Spaces” is a memorable tool
- The personal impact/Real-life impact of vocation (we all have stories we could share!)
 - The Spirit is at work!
- Seeing these vocations toward government “pay, pray, obey”
 - We’ll address this more later
