

Reflection Questions October 1, 2023 My Strength, My Song, My Salvation Exodus 15:1-21

What does the Song of Moses teach us about an appropriate response to God's goodness and glory? What is an appropriate form of response? What is the appropriate content of that response? And what is to be the primary object of our response?

Reflection Questions:

- 1. In what ways does this passage both encourage and model the appropriate response to God's glory?
- 2. How does praising God for His power impact your understanding of His sovereignty?
- 3. What are some examples from Scripture where we see God's wrath being expressed righteously?
- 4. How can music help us connect with and express emotions in a way that words alone cannot?
- 5. Why is it important to focus our worship primarily on exalting and glorifying God rather than ourselves? Do you see evidence of misdirected worship in the modern church?
- 6. How does the vision from Revelation 15:2-4 inspire you in your own worship today?
- 7. Share a song or hymn that has helped you connect with worshipping God more deeply.
- 8. In what ways can we ensure that our worship remains focused on exalting and glorifying God rather than becoming self-centered or driven by personal preferences?
- 9. How can we incorporate more praise and thanksgiving into our daily lives as a response to witnessing the glory of God?

Prayer Points:

- 1. Ask God to bring to your mind all that He has done for you.
- 2. Pray in praise and give thanksgiving to God for who He is and for those instances He has brought to your remembrance.
- 3. Ask God for the boldness to walk through the new door when He has closed a previous one.
- 4. Ask God for a heart of worship.
