Psalm 5

November 15, 2026

Meditate on these questions….

Asking the Lord to deepen our understanding…

Four essential realities from Psalm 5:

1) v. 1-3 God is accessible by praying with faith.

2) v. 4-6 The wicked cannot dwell with God.

3) v. 10 The wicked will fall by their own counsel.

4) v. 9 Apart from Christ we are all wicked!

Question: v. 7-8, 11-12

How can anyone dwell with God?

If you have yet come to joyfully submit to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior:

- Do you understand that you remain under the good and just wrath of God?
- That all of us, because of our rebellion against God's good law, are not able to dwell with God in heaven?
- That it will be just, fair, and right for you to be cast into hell on the final day?

When we consider the holiness of God and the sinfulness of man these realities prove themselves to be true.

But God…

Romans 5:8
but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

If you are in Christ:

- Are you praying expectantly?
- Are you daily meditating on the goodness and kindness of God who saved you?
- Are you ever growing in your love for and thankfulness to God for his abundance steadfast love?
- Are you walking in righteousness? Asking God to make your paths straight?
- Is your life full of rejoicing? Singing for joy?
- Are you continuing to rest and dwell well? Finding your refuge and abiding with great joy in the person and work of Christ?

Psalm 5:7a
But I, through the abundance of your steadfast love, will enter your house.

Psalm 5:10b
…because of the abundance of their transgressions cast them out,...