

Walk With the Word

Acts 24

Caesarea Maritima

How did fresh water get to Caesarea? Aqueducts.

24: 1-9 – Paul is accused before the governor Felix.

Arriving later is Ananias and his (selected) priests, along with a lawyer named Tertullus.

Tertullus begins his statement by flattering Felix.

Tertullus accuses Paul of being a “real pest and a fellow who stirs up dissension” all over the world, and the “ringleader” of the “sect of the Nazarenes.”

24:10-27 – Paul defends himself based on the resurrection.

Note: Paul never mentions Jesus the Nazarene.

Paul acknowledges that he preaches “the Way” and believes everything in the Law and the Prophets.

Paul makes known to Felix all the false accusations.

Paul concludes by once again asserting belief in the resurrection.

Felix concludes the session and orders Paul into house arrest.

With Drusilla present, Paul witnesses to faith in Jesus Christ.

Paul remains under house arrest for 2 years.
