

CHOSEN

JOHN 13:3-15

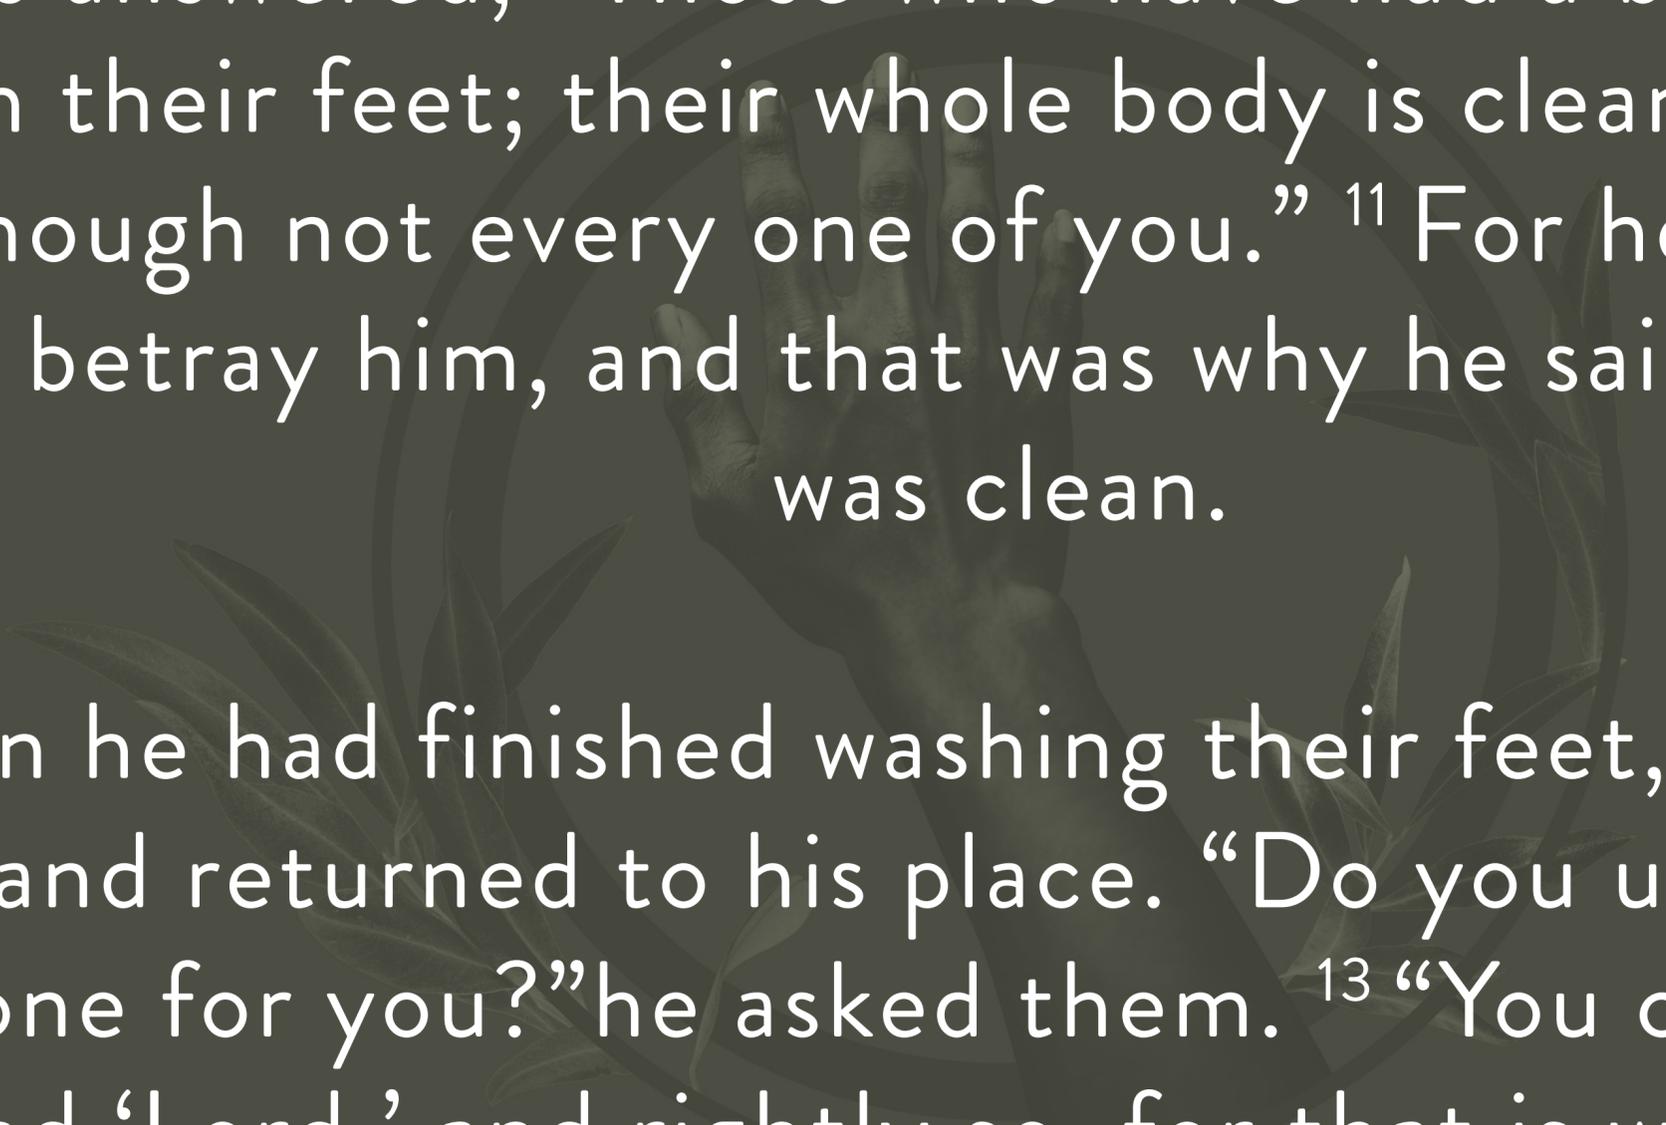

³ Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; ⁴ so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. ⁵ After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

⁶ He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?”

⁷ Jesus replied, “You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand.”

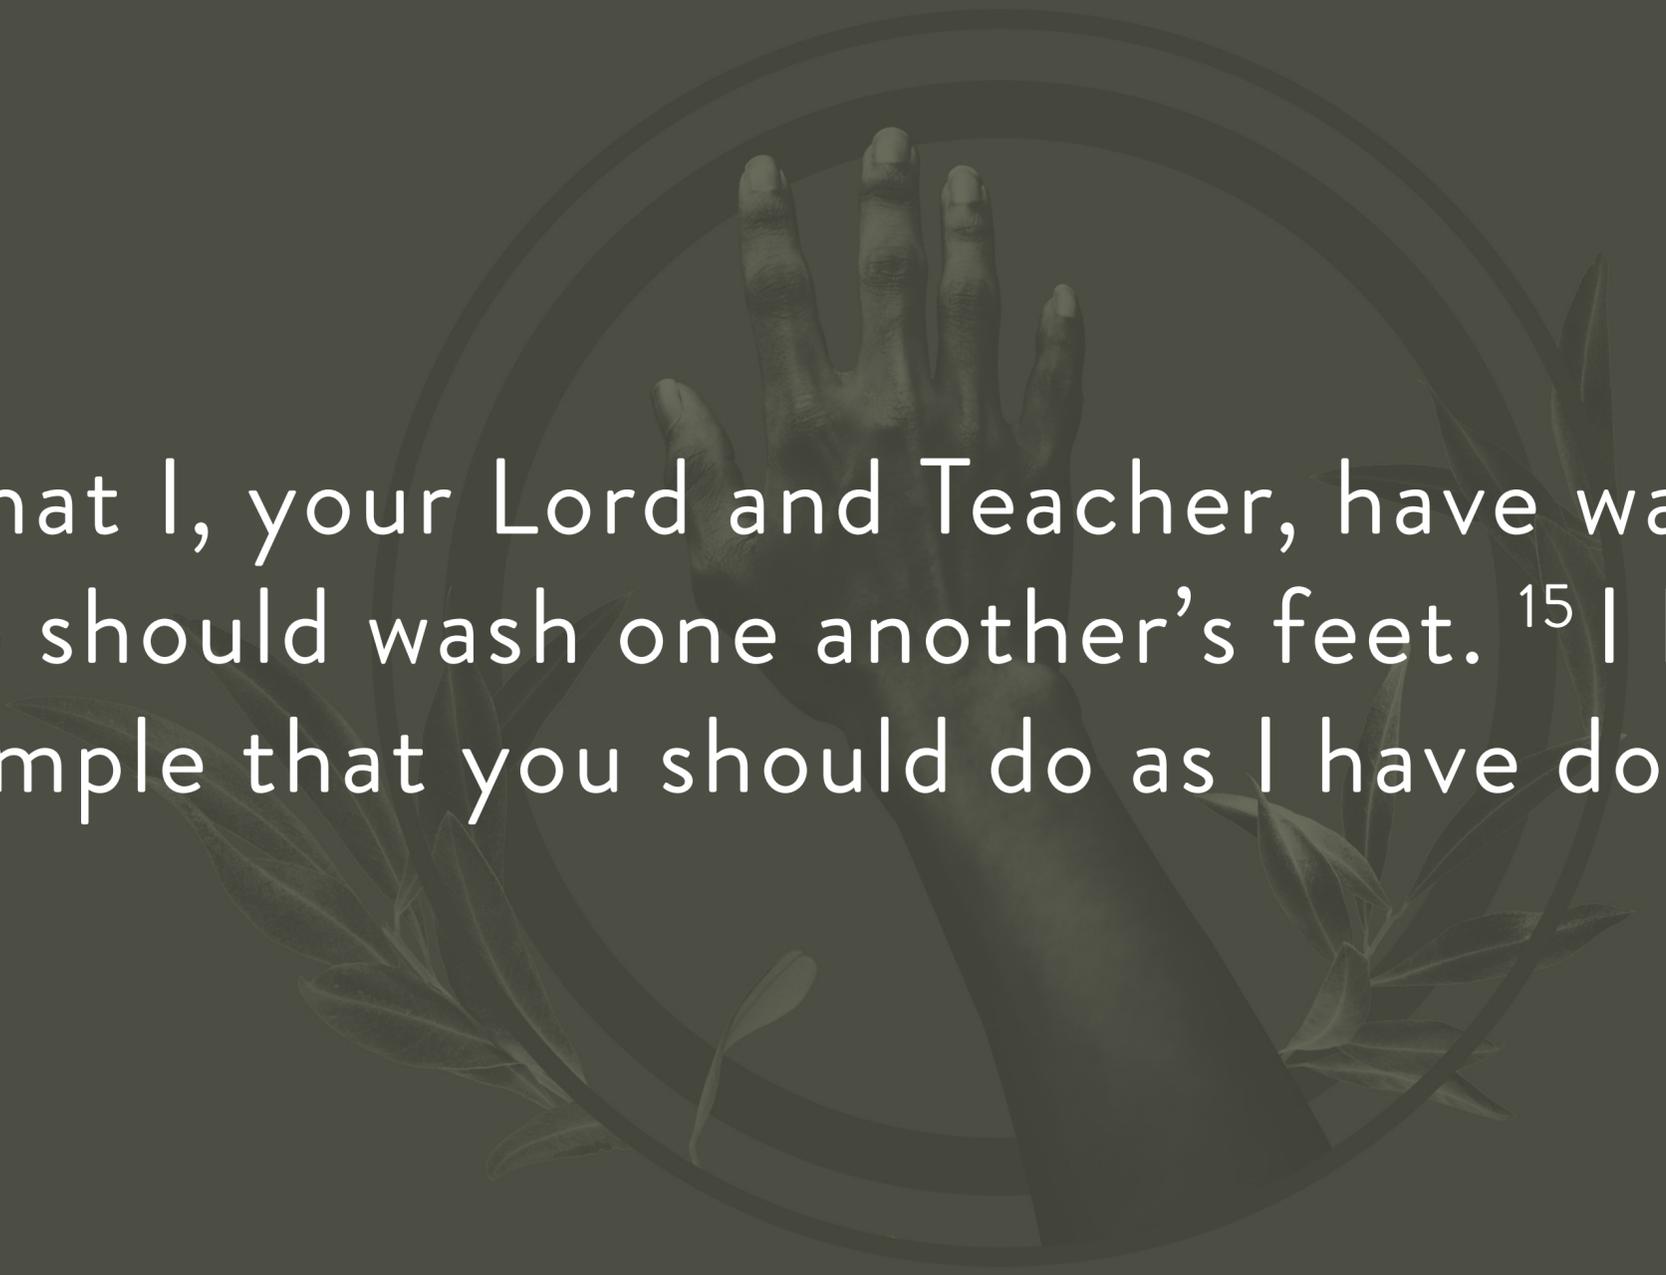

⁸ “No,” said Peter, “you shall never wash my feet.”
Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with me.”

⁹ “Then, Lord,” Simon Peter replied, “not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!”

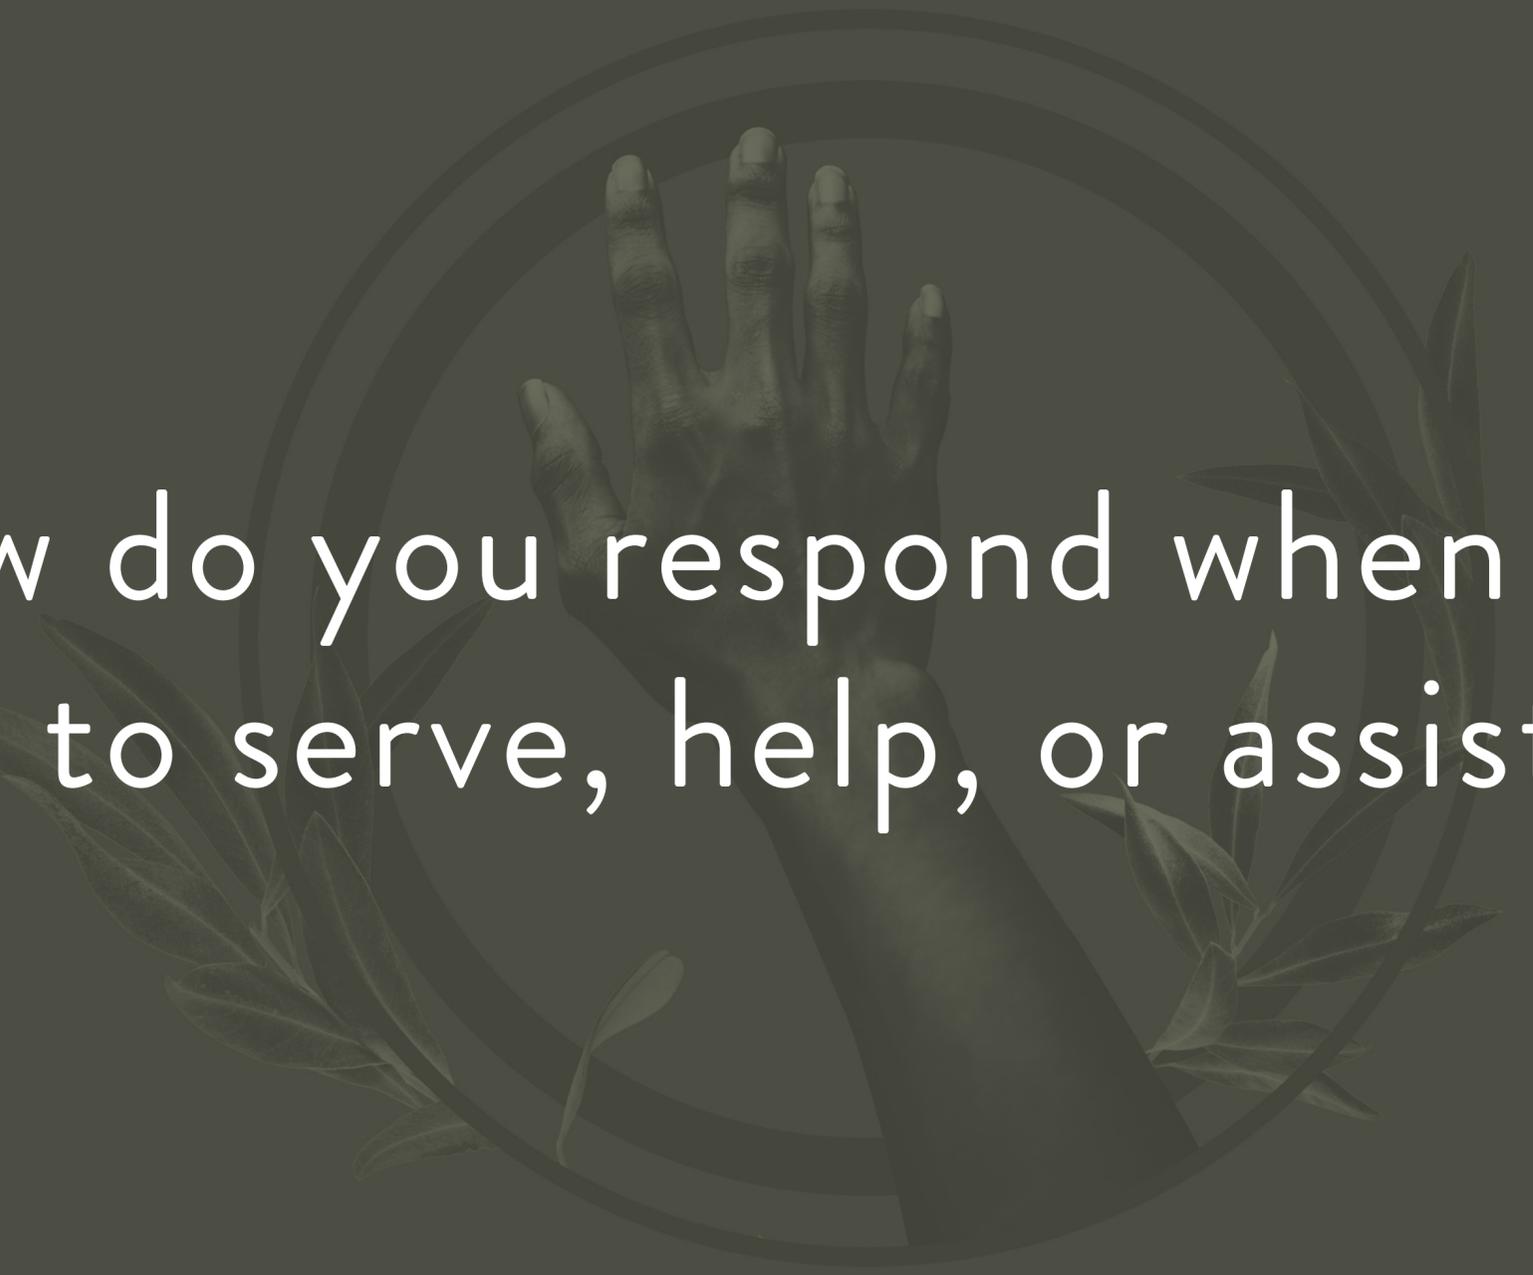

¹⁰ Jesus answered, “Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you.” ¹¹ For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

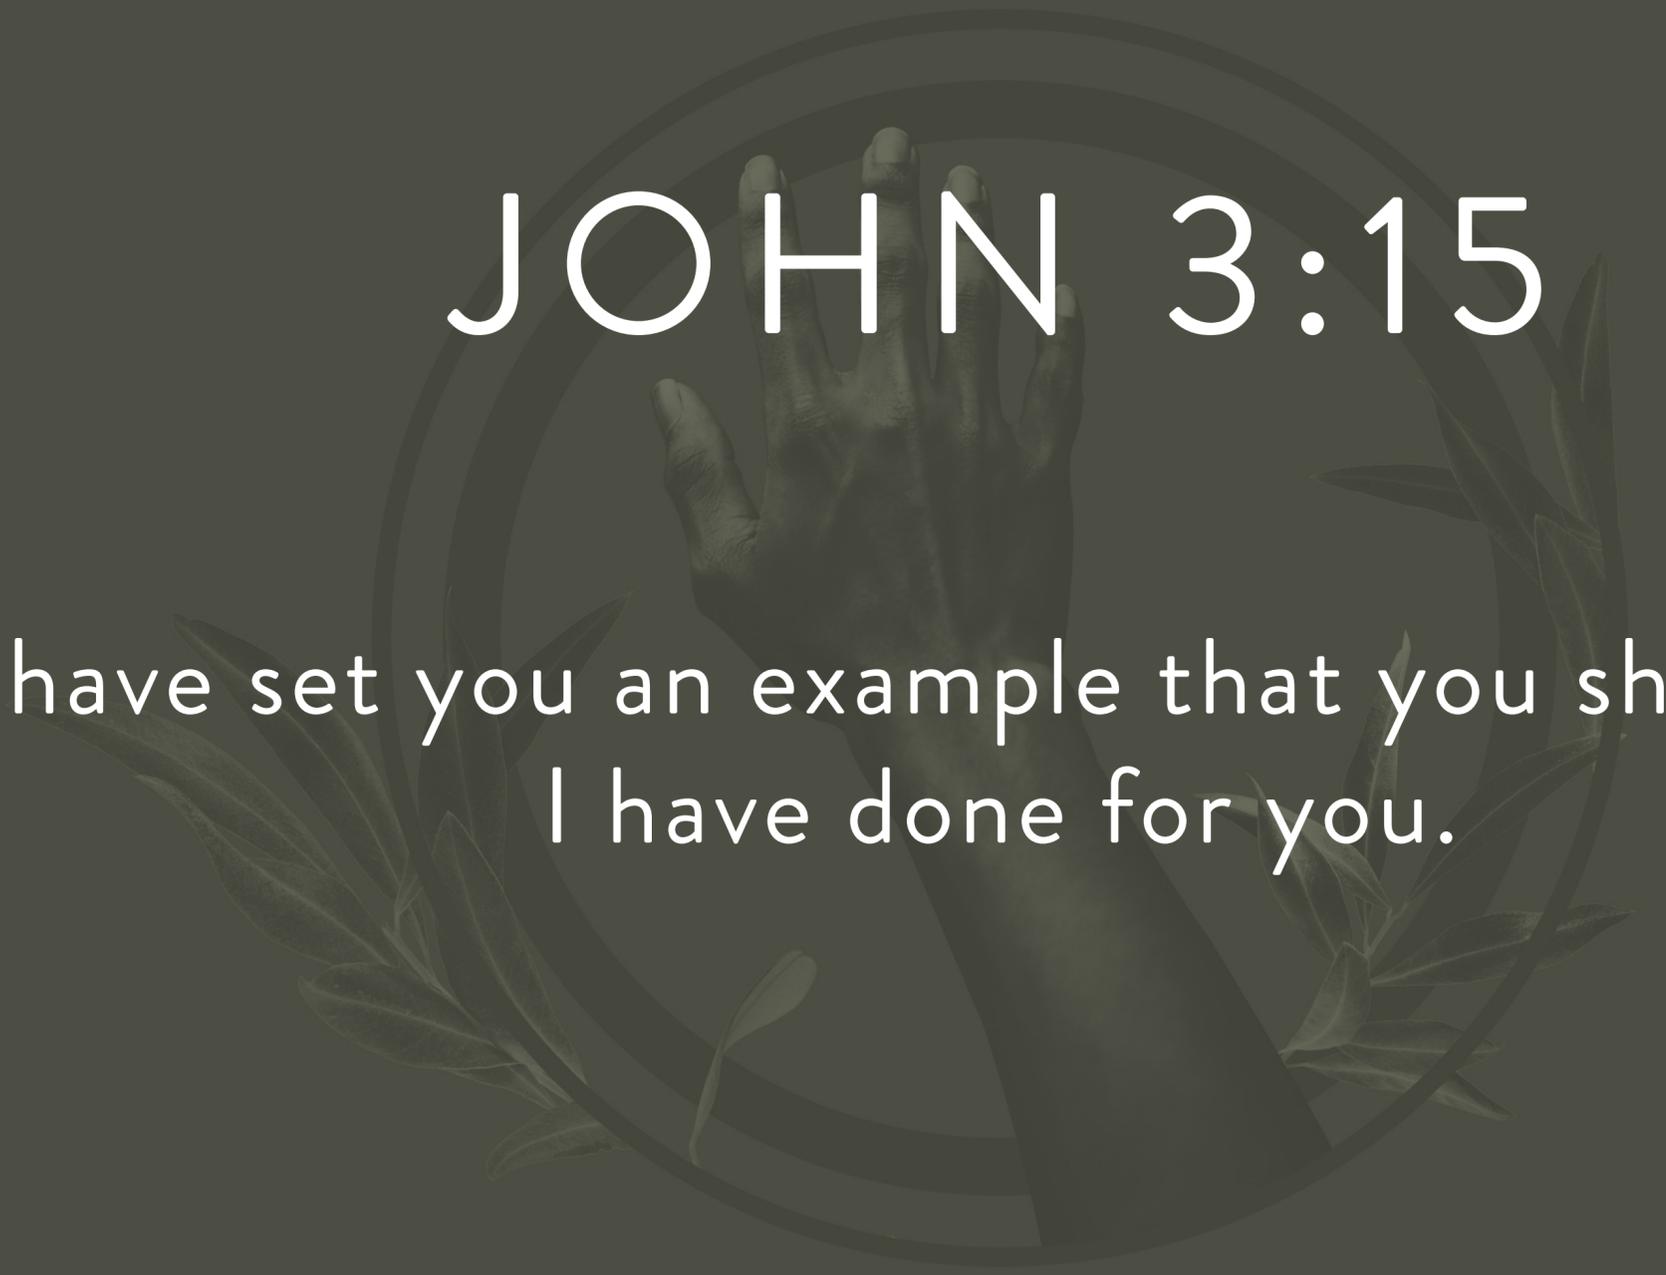

¹² When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. “Do you understand what I have done for you?” he asked them. ¹³ “You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and rightly so, for that is what I am.

¹⁴ Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. ¹⁵ I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.

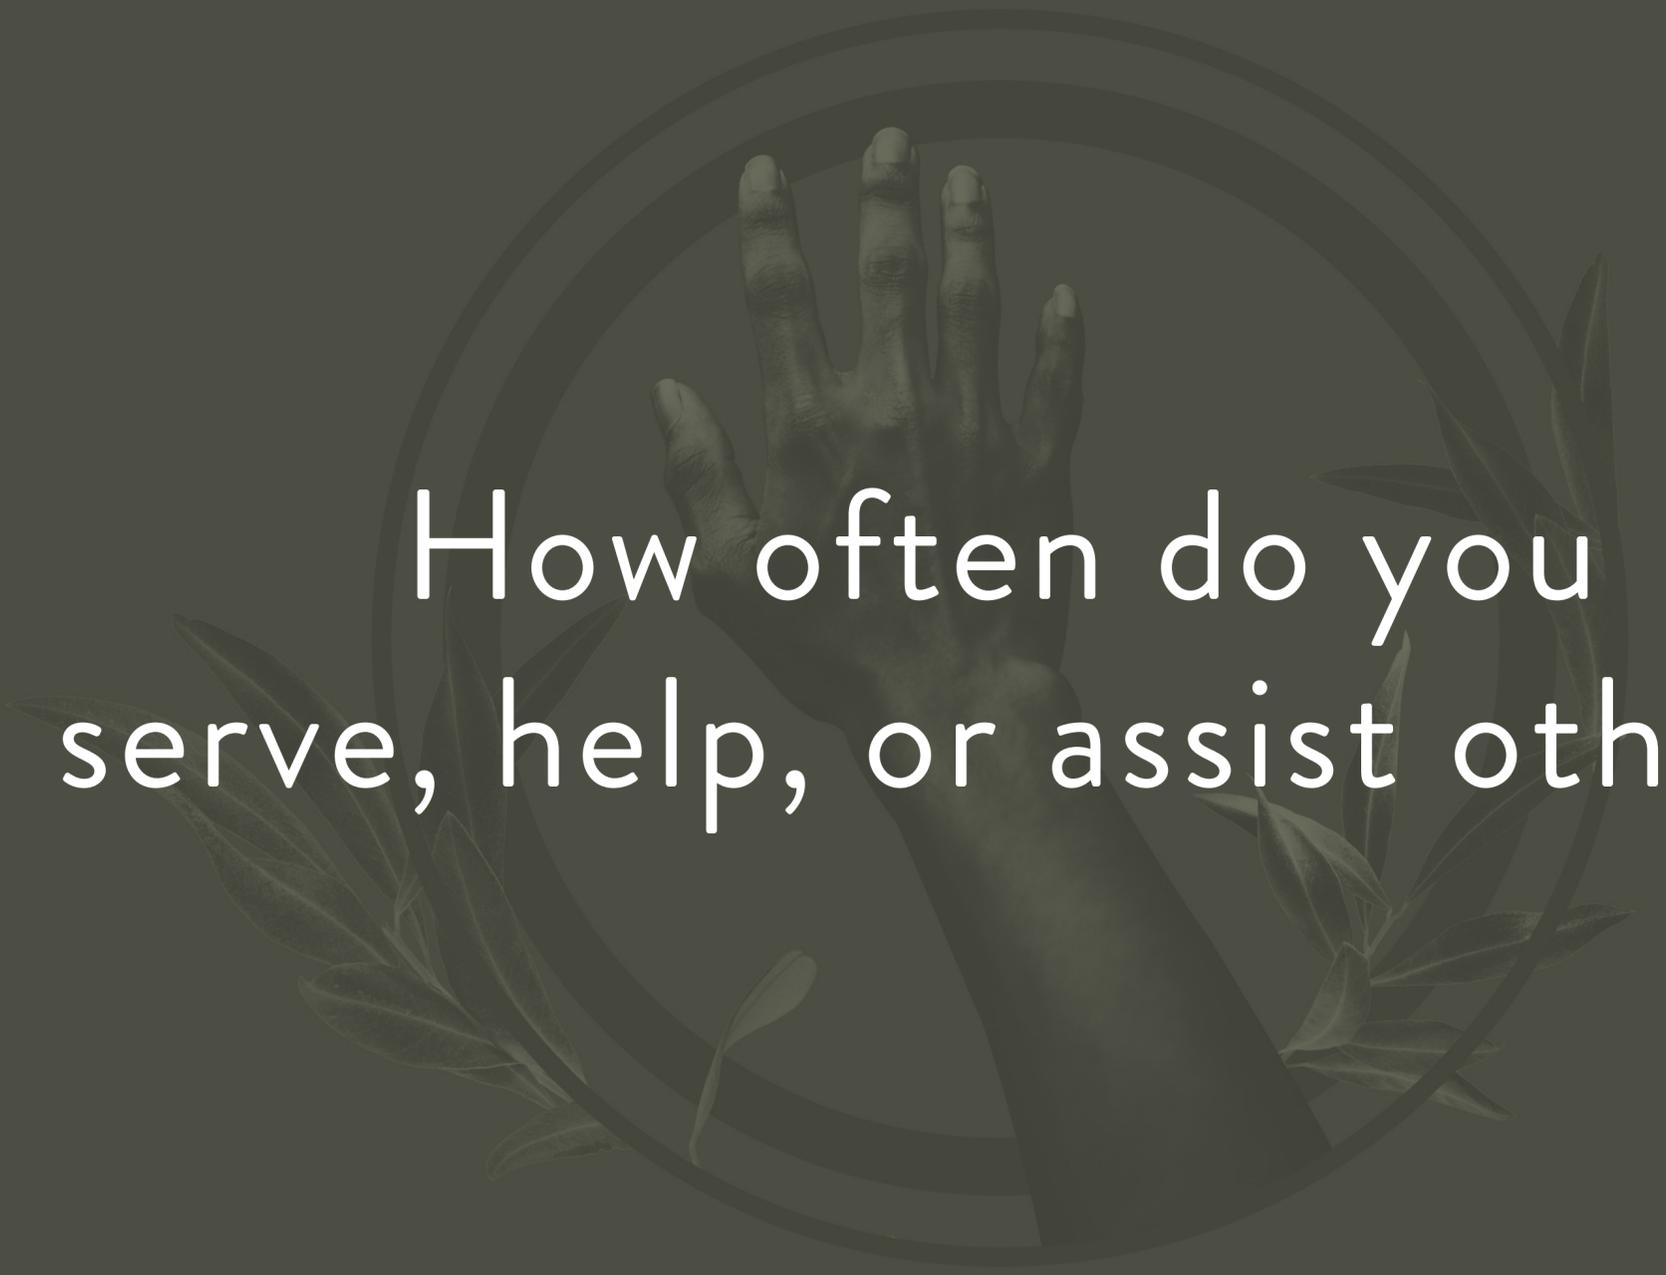

How do you respond when others
try to serve, help, or assist you?

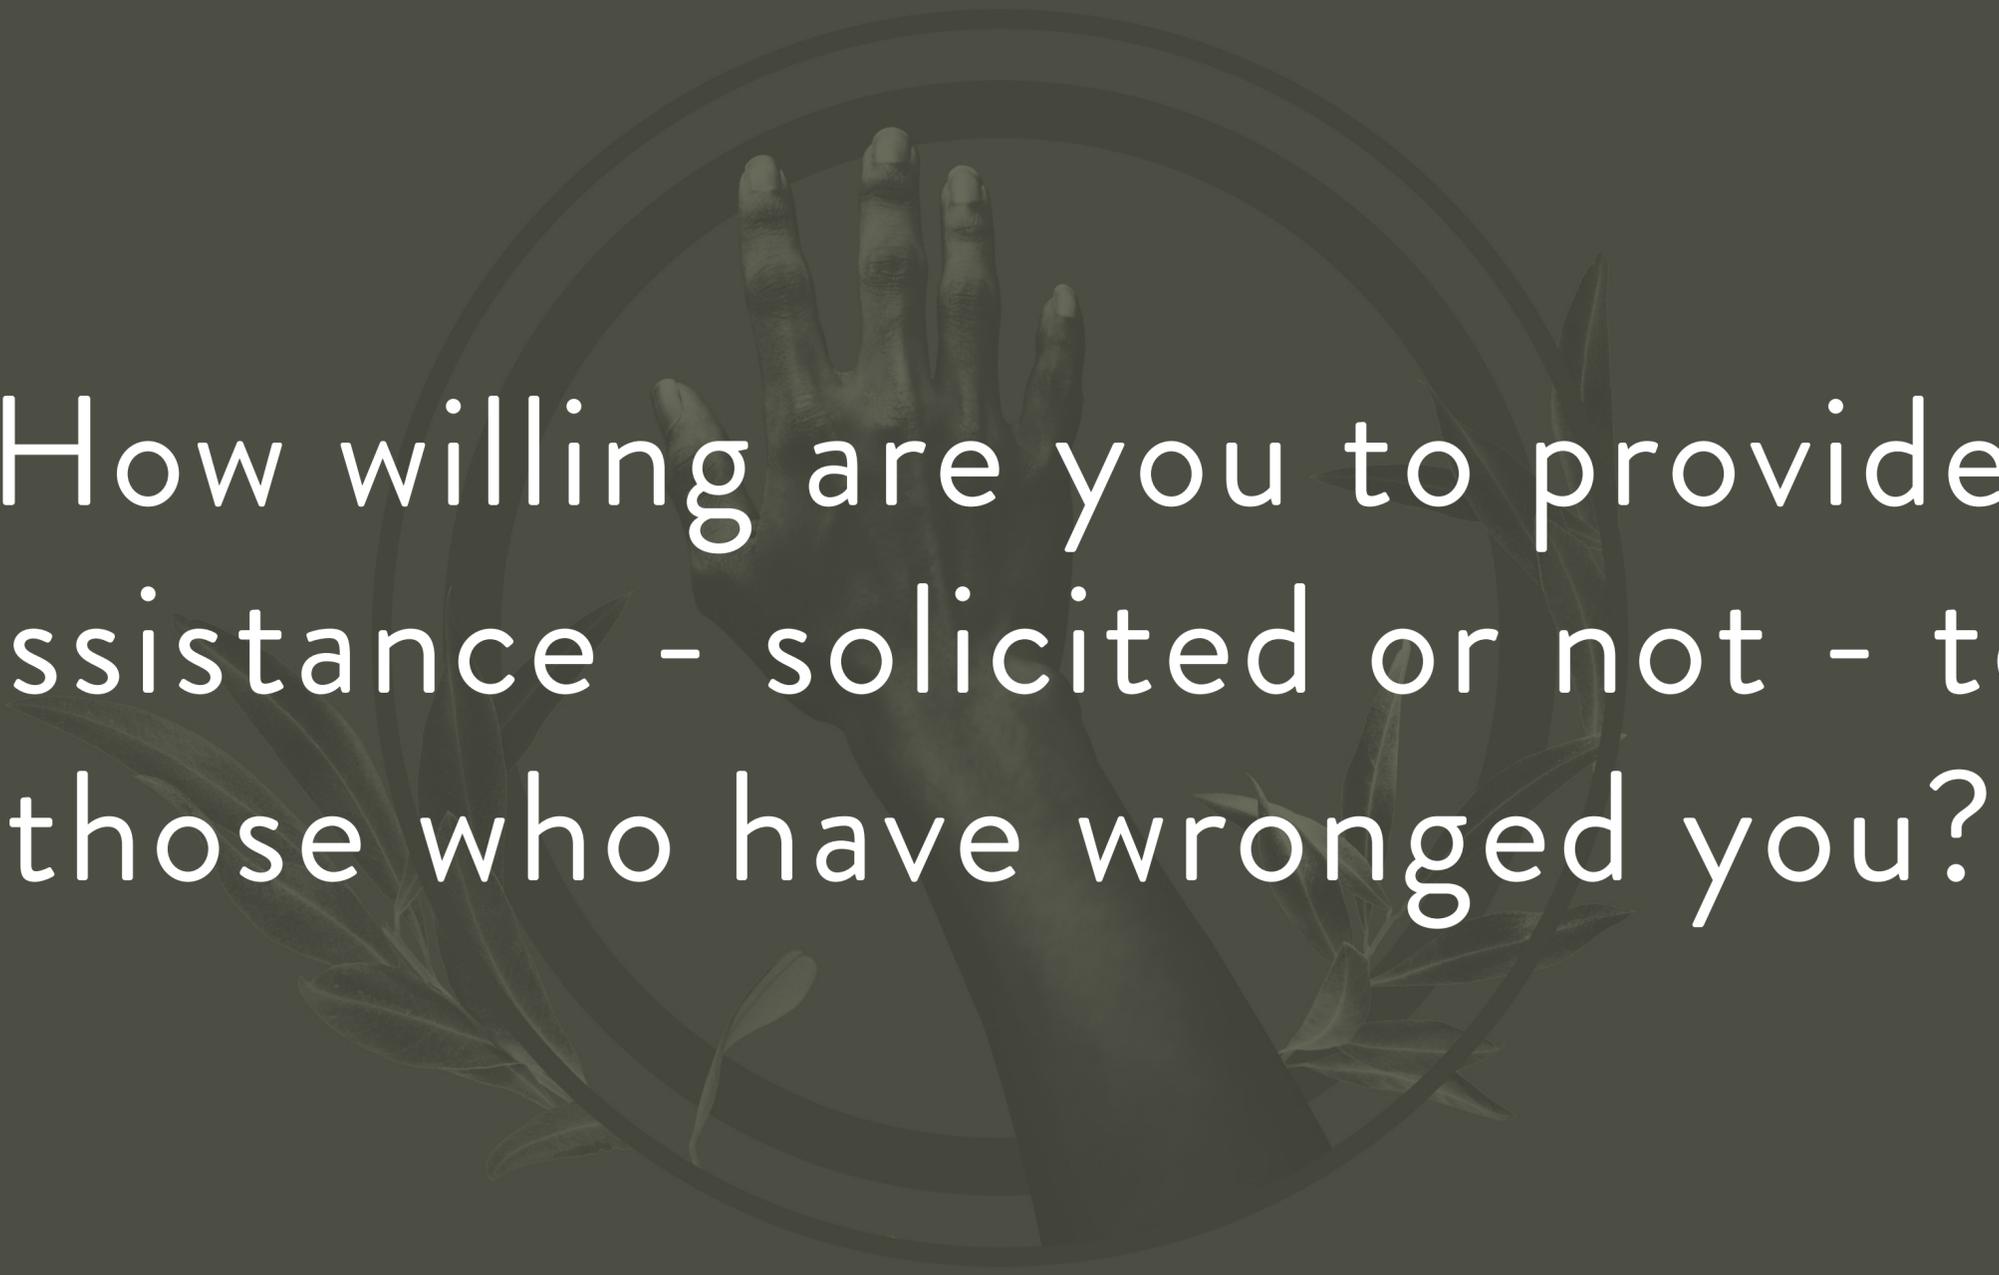

JOHN 3:15

¹⁵ I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.

The wreath consists of several long, pointed leaves arranged in a circular pattern around the hand. The entire scene is set against a dark, solid background.

How often do you serve, help, or assist others?

A hand reaching up, symbolizing assistance or support, set against a circular background with a laurel wreath.

How willing are you to provide assistance - solicited or not - to those who have wronged you?

Reflect and jot notes on the following:

Where are you in your ability to actively display a servant's heart to those you love?
To those you hate or hate you?

Where are you in your ability to receive the actions of someone with a servant's heart?

What are your trends
in response to serving and being served?

Steps to Serve Others:

1. Remove your outer garment → Get in a mental, emotional, spiritual, and physical state to serve.
2. Don a towel {and kneel} → Humble yourself and truly take on the role of a servant
3. Wash the feet, y'all → Go do the work.

Steps to Receive Service from Others:

1. Sit. → Physically and spiritually provide the opportunity for Jesus and others to serve you.
2. Let yourself enjoy it.
3. Show gratitude.
4. Go serve.
