The Parable of the Unforgiving Slave

Matthew 18:21 - 35

Main Idea:

Having had the incalculable debt of their own sin freely forgiven, disciples of Jesus must be eager to forgive others. The Christian who refuses to forgive invites God's chastening.

Outline:

- 1) The Parable
 - The setup
 - The story

2) Application

1. How would you define/explain forgiveness to a child?
2. What is the opposite of forgiveness?
3. What part does forgiveness pay in our salvation as believers?
- What was the cost of our forgiveness?
4. It has been said that disciples of Jesus are never more like Him than when the forgive. Do you agree? Why or why not?	ey
5. What limits, if any, should Christians place on their forgiveness of others?
