

Be Spirit-Led (Part 2 – Moment by Moment)

Interactive Study Guide

Opening Declaration

This is my Bible.

This is the Word of God.

This Word is my guide and my compass.

This Word trains my ear to hear His voice.

Through this Word, I learn His heart and follow His leading.

I don't just read it for information — I receive it for transformation.

I don't just memorize it — I let it shape my decisions.

I don't just quote it — I walk it out with the Holy Spirit's help.

This Word teaches me to pause, to listen, and to obey.

It reminds me that every moment matters — every thought, every word, every response matters.

I am a disciple of Jesus, and I believe everything this Word says about me.

(Look at your neighbor and tell them) “And I believe everything this Word says about you.”

Every moment matters... so be led in every moment.

Main Scripture

Galatians 5:25 (NLT) – “If we are living now by the Holy Spirit, let us follow the Holy Spirit's leading in every part of our lives.”

Romans 8:14 (NLT) – “For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.”

Big Idea

Being Spirit-led is not about a Sunday shout — it's about Monday sensitivity. It's about being part of a Holy Spirit movement that flows through every moment of your life.

1. Sensitivity to the Spirit

Paul said, “Walk by the Spirit.” The word walk means a continuous, steady movement — step by step. You don't just talk to the Spirit during worship; you walk with Him through life.

You can't “catch” the Holy Ghost like He's a football or like He attacks you during a service. You don't catch Him — you become aware of Him.

1 Corinthians 6:19 – “Don't you realize that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who lives in you and was given to you by God?”

Reflection: Where in your life do you need to become more aware of the Spirit's presence?

2. Slowing Down to Listen

To walk with the Spirit, you must slow down. The enemy loves a rushed believer because a rushed believer will always react instead of respond.

Isaiah 30:21 – “Your own ears will hear Him. Right behind you a voice will say, ‘This is the way you should go.’”

Practice the 3Ps: Pause. Pray. Proceed. You pause long enough to let Him speak before you move, pray long enough to align your will with His, and proceed only when you have peace.

Reflection: Which of the 3Ps do I struggle with the most?

3. Learning His Voice

John 10:27 – “My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me.”

The Spirit will never contradict Scripture — He inspired it. If you feel peace, it’s safe to proceed. If you lose peace, it’s time to pause.

Reflection: How do I know when the Holy Spirit is speaking to me?

4. Moment-by-Moment Obedience

When you obey the small promptings, you make room for the bigger ones. Acts 8:29, 9:10–11, and 10:19–20 show that small Spirit-led moments can create generational impact.

Reflection: What small nudge have I been ignoring that God might be using to grow my obedience?

Response Moment

Being Spirit-led doesn’t mean you’re perfect — it means you’re present. Pray: “Holy Spirit, lead my thoughts, direct my actions, and guide my responses.”

Weekly Challenge

Practice the 3Ps daily: Pause. Pray. Proceed. Journal one moment this week when you sensed His leading.

Final Declaration

I will walk with the Spirit, moment by moment. Stay sensitive. Every moment matters.
