This Week's Global Partners

Operation Christmas Child (OCC) is a world-wide Gospel outreach ministry. In the fall, people across the country will pack shoeboxes with hygiene items, school supplies, and small toys. Those shoeboxes are shipped worldwide to missionary teams who then host shoebox distribution parties where the Gospel is presented in the child's own language. For those children seeking to commit themselves to Jesus, a 12-week follow-up discipleship program is available.

Affirmation Process

We believe each member of FCC plays an important role in the process of seeking the Lord's will regarding a potential pastor. We will be grateful for your active participation.

- Commit to prayer for the Lord's leading
- Take every possible opportunity to engage with the candidate (virtually if not in person).
- Ask questions of the candidate, the search committee, and the elders.
- Engage in the vote of affirmation, providing commendations or concerns as appropriate.
- Trust the final decision of the elders, "for they are keeping watch over your souls, as those who will have to give an account." (Hebrews 13:17)
