The King's Unassuming Installation

 The King's Universal Impact

For Further Reflection

- 1) What does this passage teach us about the kind of King Jesus is—and why is that good news for sinners who need mercy?

- 2) What did the blind men recognize about Jesus that the crowds around them seemed to miss? What does their response teach us about what genuine faith sees in Jesus?

- 3) What does Jesus' humility tell us about the kind of king He is? Where do you find yourself wanting Jesus to rule according to your expectations rather than His ways?

- 4) The crowd was willing to praise Jesus, but many did not truly understand who He was. What is the difference between admiring Jesus and actually submitting to Him as King? What would submission to His Kingship look like in your life right now?
