

PRELUDE

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rev. John W. Bowling

CALL TO WORSHIP*

The darkness is gone!

Bright light floods into this new day of hope.

Lord, like the women at the tomb on the first Easter, we come out of our darkness and into Your marvelous light.

The clouds have parted, the sun shines, angels gather, the tomb is empty.

They thought a stone would keep the dead in their place, but a stone could not smother the truth:

Christ is alive. He lives!

Yes, the darkness of death, of lifelessness is gone!

Bright light floods the empty tomb; holy light emanates from the grave.

God's grace, God's love, God's redemption cannot be buried or kept silent.

Let this truth be set to music; let the heavenly music ring.

Easter people we must sing: Christ is risen from the dead.

Christ is risen from the dead. Alleluia and Amen!

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

The risen Christ meets us at the tomb, and turns our tears to joy.

For your love and goodness we give you thanks, O God.

Christ comes to daily life and work, and turns our failure to new vision.

We surrender ourselves to you this day, Lord, meet us where we are.

If he were not risen, to whom would we go to discover a radiance of the face of God?

We would remain lost in the darkness of living and the darkness of death.

But the grave could not hold our Lord, Jesus. In him we find forgiveness, newness of life, strength and power for living.

We stand before the living God today and receive the light of His light.

For the stone has been rolled away.

The stone has been rolled away! Hallelujah! God reigns!
