

A season of supernatural acceleration & spiritual position.

I feel an urgency in the Spirit to write this today. Most of the things I bring forth are simple messages but this one feels layered and deep, so I will position myself at the keyboard and worship while I write.

I was taken up in a vision in prayer the other day, and I began to see myself walking on a road. I had left the wilderness behind me and I was in an inbetween place. The destination was ahead of me. From my vantage point in the vision the place ahead of me did not look far, however I was moving slow. The pace at which I was walking wasn't abnormally slow but I could see that the time it would take me to reach the destination ahead, moving at this pace, would take too long. There was such an urgency in my spirit as I watched this, so I began to pray for an acceleration. In my prayers I reminded the Lord what he did with Elijah outrunning the Chariots of Ahab, and even in Acts Ch 8 when the Lord moved Phillip from ministry assignment, to ministry assignment by the supernatural speed and strength of the Holy Ghost. Then my vision changed and I watched 4 white doves attach themselves to me and pick me up from the road and fly me forward, quickly. As I continued to intercede I then found myself in a vehicle driven by an angel that brought me directly to the gate of the destination, in which he had a key to open and he unlocked the door.

My intercession went from one of contending, to one of victory and thanksgiving to God for supernatural speed and acceleration.

You should know that before I left Ohio (winter 2025) I had an intense vision.

I was crawling on the ground with little to no strength and pulling myself (via crawling with my hands) to reach the threshold of a door. My hands were bloody and dirty, and I watched them stretch across the threshold and I wept in the vision. Seeing this brought me both relief and travail. I had just made it. Barely. And the Spirit of the Lord said to me "The enemy tried to kill you at the threshold". Then my vision shifted and I was walking, on the same desert road from the start of this writing today, but the wilderness was just at my back. Then, in the winter of 2025 I was one pace outside of the wilderness.

When my vision picked up the other day (fall 2026) I was significantly closer to the destination, but as I said the urgency I felt in the spirit didn't match my pace of advancement so I began to contend to the Lord for supernatural help.

As I have reflected on this over the last day The Lord has been stirring within me that this is what He wants to do for His people in this hour.

Supernatural Acceleration for Divine Destinations.

The years in the wilderness have come to an end and there is a place that we must contend for.

I could have been okay with the slow pace of transition but I felt the heart of the Father over the Bride and over the Lost. The Church needs awakened, the saints are seeking discipleship and equipping and the Lost are dying without the hope of heaven.

I feel that many of you need to ask the Lord for a divine acceleration.

That window of grace is open.

Those of you who know you are on the path the Lord has asked you to be on. Those who feel the tension or transition and its familiarity.

There is a divine acceleration available for those who are in route, and for those willing to carry the mantle required of this next season.

There are places in the Spirit within the heart of God that He longs to reveal to His people if they would just enter the secret place and begin to pray.

If they would ask the Father for His heart, for His eyes, and for His divine wisdom.

He is speaking.

He is calling the Gideon's forth

He is calling the watchmen higher.

He is calling the intercessors deeper.

As I prayed yesterday I watched the tectonic plates in the spirit realm fully align.

God has positioned His remnant for this hour.

It is time to stand boldly and contend for the land that God has promised you.

To flow in the anointing He has placed on your life.

As I inquired of the Lord within the vision yesterday He spoke and said "Many people seek physical position, but it is my heart for them to seek the spiritual authority - because that is what unlocks the door and places them in the physical places they seek."

Physical doors open by unseen spiritual authority and supernatural access.

Not by accolades and performance.

It is the hand of God only that will advance His people in this hour.

And those that are advancing will do so at an accelerated speed.

And not for their gain or to boost their resume. But for Kingdom purpose and Heaven's assignment.

They are living a life that is not their own, and they have surrendered at the plan of the author.

The time is short.

Jesus is coming back, quickly.

May we be found with our hand to the plow and our ears tuned to heaven.

On assignment, with authority.

Advancing at a divine pace, adding to the kingdom and equipping the saints.
