

2026 Pastor Pop-Up Seminar

Amelia Plantation Chapel

Dr. Ken Jones, Senior Pastor

Why do we do that on Sunday? Explore the meaning behind the elements of Christian worship and how worship shapes our lives.

Explore the Meaning Behind the Elements of Christian Worship

Interdenominational Worship

D.A. Carson writes this vision of worship, in Worship by the Book, “Is there not some need for Christians from highly different backgrounds to come together and recite one creed, read from one Scripture, and jointly sing shared songs, thereby crossing race gaps, gender gaps, and generational gaps, standing in a shared lineage that reaches back through centuries and is finally ground in the Word?”

Explore How Worship Shapes Our Lives as Christians

The Well-Disciplined Church

“Worship makes and shapes disciples (see Psalm 115:7-8) —” Jonty Rhodes

- New Covenant Worship Core (see Matthew 28:19)
- The Isaiah Gospel Renewal Cycle (see Isaiah 6:1-8)

P = Presence, Problem, Pardon, Proclaim

- “The Constitution of the Church” Moment (see 1 Peter 2:9-10)

The Priesthood of Believers = Praise, Proclaim, Prayer, Promote

The Proper Worship of God is the Best Christian Discipleship

What is an “Interdenominational” Worship Service? A Chapel and a Church.

What it is NOT? External Misunderstanding and an Internal Misunderstanding

What it IS? Intentional Christian Discipleship

The Christian Liturgical Movement:

1. Commitment to the _____ (Time).

Walking as Christ walked.*

2. Commitment to the _____ (Details).

Tracing the Cross of Christ.*

3. Commitment to the _____ (Relationships).

Loving as Jesus loves.*

4. Commitment to the _____ (Word of God).

Worshiping as Jesus taught us—in Spirit and in Truth.*

- Trinitarian Core
- Christ-Centered, Gospel-Reenacted Worship
- More Participation by the Priesthood of Believers

1 Peter 2:9-10
