Pastoral Prayer & Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Spirit of God, Descend Upon My Heart

arr. Robert Lau

*Spirit of God, descend upon my heart, wean it from earth, through all its pulses move;
Stoop to my weakness, strength to me impart, and make me love you, love you as I ought to love.*

*I ask no dream, no prophet ecstasies, no sudden rending of the veil of clay,
No angel visitor, no opening skies; but take the dimness of my soul away.*

*Have you not bid me love you God, and King? I am your own, my heart, soul, strength and mind.
I see your cross, there teach my heart to cling. Let me seek you and find you there.*

*Teach me to love you as the angels love, one holy passion filling all my frame.
The baptism of the heavenly descended dove, my heart an altar and your love the flame.*

Worship Notes

Today is Pentecost Sunday.

Pentecost, from the Greek word πεντηκοστή, meaning “fifty,” occurs fifty days after Easter and reminds us of the descent of the Holy Spirit on the apostles as recorded in the second chapter of Acts.

The color for Pentecost is red, the color of fire, and symbolizes the presence of God. It also symbolizes the blood of the martyrs and is considered the color of the church. Other symbols such as tongues of fire and the descending dove are commonly used on Pentecost Sunday.
