*Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God; begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made. Who for us and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; he suffered and was buried, and the third day he rose again according to the scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sits on the right hand of the Father; and he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end. And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church; I acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Our Vision:

To develop mature Christian disciples who compassionately respond to the needs of others.

Today is Epiphany Sunday.

Observed on or near January 6, Epiphany Sunday celebrates the revelation of Christ to the world, commemorating the visit of the Magi who followed the star to Bethlehem and recognized Jesus as King, God, and Savior for all nations.

The liturgical colors of this day are white and gold, used to express joy, purity, and triumph, reflecting the splendor of Christ revealed to the Gentiles and the radiant light that continues to shine into the world through him.
