ALL SAINTS REMEMBRANCE 2025

We are in communion with the saints of Jesus Christ. On All Saints' Day, we remember and give thanks for those who have passed away in the previous year. After the litany, we will read the names for each person who has passed away. When the name is read, family members and friends of that person are invited to stand, and then be seated after the bell has tolled. After all the names have been read, you'll be invited to stand in remembrance of all those saints who have gone before us and to remain standing for the prayer.

ALL SAINTS LITANY

Leader: For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven.

People: A time to be born and a time to die, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to grieve and a time to dance.

Leader: Now is our time to remember those who have preceded us across the river into the land of eternal joy.

People: A father, a mother, a sister, a brother, a son, a daughter, a husband, a wife, a friend closer than a sister or brother.

Leader: They were the ones who shaped us, who nurtured us and taught us. Their faithfulness helped us to be faithful. Their encouragement gives us strength. Their example showed us the way to live.

People: Lord, make us more like the good that was in them, wiser through their gifts to us, richer through their belief in us, stronger through their faith in us, that as long as we live, their good influence will live through us, as does the redeeming power of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Invocation & Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We justly deserve Your judgment. For our sake, and the sake of your son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways that lead to glory. Amen. (Time for Silent Prayer)

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be world without end. Amen.*

*Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God; begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made. Who for us and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; he suffered and was buried, and the third day he rose again according to the scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sits on the right hand of the Father; and he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end. And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church; I acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

*Prayer of Dedication

Choral Anthem

Shall We Gather at the River

arr. John Carter

*Shall we gather at the river, where bright angel feet have trod,
With its crystal tide forever flowing by the throne of God?
Yes, we'll gather at the river, the beautiful, the beautiful river.
Gather with the saints by the river, that flows by the throne of God.*

*Ere we reach the shining river, lay we every burden down.
Grace our spirits will deliver and provide a robe and crown.
Yes, we'll gather at the river, the beautiful, the beautiful river.
Gather with the saints by the river, that flows by the throne of God.*

*Deep river, my home is over Jordan, deep river I want to cross over into campground.
Soon we'll reach the shining river, soon our pilgrimage will cease;
Soon our happy hearts will quiver with the melody of peace.
Yes, we'll gather at the river, the beautiful, the beautiful river.
Gather with the saints by the river, that flows by the throne of God.
Text by Robert Lowery (1826-1899) and Anonymous.*

Worship Notes

Today we celebrate All Saints Day. All Saints Day is a universal festival of the Church, which originated sometime in the fourth century. On All Saints we give thanks for the Communion of Saints –for the fellowship we share with those who have gone before us, and for the example our forebears have set for all of us. As part of that celebration we remember those of have died in the past year who have now joined that great cloud of witnesses that surrounds us.

The color for A Celebration of All Saints is White, symbolizing purity, celebration and joy, and recalling that the death of the saints represents their “birthday” into eternal life with God.

Holy Communion Matters

As we remember Christ's sacrifice as the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world, please be aware that if you need gluten-free Holy Communion wafers or would like to have the communion elements with you in the pew (rather than walking up front), please pick up a "communion packet" in the Chapel Narthex as you arrive to our worship service. Also know that the "wine" in both the gluten-free packets and served from the Lord's Table in the sanctuary is really grape juice.
