Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God; begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made. Who for us and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; he suffered and was buried, and the third day he rose again according to the scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sits on the right hand of the Father; and he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end. And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church; I acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Our Vision:

To develop mature Christian disciples who compassionately respond to the needs of others.

The Season of Christmastide

Christmastide is the radiant season of the Christian calendar that begins on Christmas Day and continues to Epiphany as the Church reflects on the mystery of the Incarnation and the abiding joy of Christ's birth. Today, the first Sunday after Christmas, invites believers to linger in wonder, moving beyond a single day of celebration into a sustained time of praise, thanksgiving, and contemplation. Throughout Christmastide, the Church is adorned in white and gold, colors that symbolize purity, light, glory, and the triumph of God's love made visible in the newborn Christ.
