“Paul and Barnabas at Lystra”

by Flemish artist Jacob Jordaens (1593-1678) is a depiction of the moments following the saints healing of a crippled man. The Lystrans being pagan mistook them as the gods Mercury and Jupiter come to earth. Paul and Barnabas were so dismayed by the sacrifices offered they literally torn their garments in protest.

September 20, 2026: Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost

Sermon: Honor The Word of The Lord | Dr. Ken Jones, Senior Pastor

Scripture: Acts 13:26-39

Contemporary Worship Leader, Terry Thrift

Apostles Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sits on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our Vision:

To develop mature Christian disciples who compassionately respond to the needs of others.

Prayer of Confession

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we have sinned against you in thought and word and deed, through negligence, through weakness, through our own deliberate fault. We are truly sorry and repent of all our sins. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, who died for us, forgive us; and grant that we may serve you in newness of life by the power of the Holy Spirit, to the glory of your great name. Amen. (Time for silent prayer)
