

Psalm 9

To the choirmaster: according to Muth-Labben. A Psalm of David.

D G D A

1. Whole - hear - ted thanks - giv - ing to you I will bring; in
(2. My) en - e - mies turn in dis - ord - er - ly flight; they
(3. You) threat - ened the na - tions, the wic - ked des - troyed; their
(4. The) LORD sits for - ev - er as king on his throne; his praise of your mar - vel - lous works I will sing. For joy I will shout and ex - stum - ble and per - ish in face of your might. For you have de - fend - ed my names you er - ased and for - ev - er made void. My foes are dis - graced and com - rule is es - tab - lished for jus - tice a - lone. He judg - es the world and he

D G D D/A A D Bm

D A D G D D/A A D 1, 2, 3.

ul - tant - ly cry in - praise of your glor - i - ous name, O most high.
right and my cause; you sat in just judg - ment, up - hold - ing your laws.
plete - ly un - done, their cit - ies up - root - ed, their mem - or - y gone.
does what is right; he gov - erns the na - tions with jus - tice and

2. My might.
3. You
4. The
5. The LORD is a strong - hold in
(6. Praise) God, who in Zi - on has
(7. LORD,) see what I suf - fer from (8. The) na - tions are sunk in the (9. The) wick - ed re - turn to the times of dis - tress, a re - fuge for those whom the wick - ed op - press. Your foun - ded his throne; pro - claim to the na - tions the deeds he has done. The mal - ice and hate! Have pit - y, and lift me a - way from death's gate, that pit they pre - pared; their feet in the net which they hid are en - snared. The grave's dark a - bode, all na - tions and those who are heed - less of God. But peo - ple who know you will trust in your grace; you've nev - er for - sak - en those cry of af - flic - ted ones rings in his ear; their blood he a - ven - ges, their I in Jer - u - sa - lem's gates may pro - claim your mer - cy, and sing to the LORD by his jus - tice has made him - self known; and by their own works are the God will re - mem - ber the cause of the weak; He will not let per - ish the seek - ing your face. 6. Praise meek. 10. A - rise, O my plea he will hear.

E B E A E E/B B E

 praise of your name.
 wick - ed cast down.
 hope of the God! Let not man win the day; let na - tions be judged in your pres - ence I pray. O LORD, strike the na - tions; put fear in their breast to teach them that they are but hum - an at best. Your peo - ple who know you will trust in your B E A E E/B B E

 E C#m E B E A

grace; you've nev - er for - sak - en those seek - ing your face. you've nev - er for - sak - en those seek - ing your face.