our trans-gress-ions He re-moves, our trans-gress-ions He re-moves.

4. Praise the LORD! For, like a father, well He knows how we are made:
frail as grass or meadow flowers,
quick to grow and quick to fade;
but His grace from time eternal rests on those who fear His name, and to all who keep His covenant
He is evermore the same,
He is evermore the same.

5. Praise the LORD, you mighty angels, who at once His word fulfill!
Praise the LORD, you hosts of heaven, who perform your Maker's will!
Praise the LORD, all things created through His measureless domains!
Praise the LORD, my soul is singing,
praise the LORD who ever reigns,
praise the LORD who ever reigns!
