

Psalm 110

A Psalm of David.

E B/D# A C#m7 B

1.The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit down at my right hand, un -
2.Your peo - ple make them - selves an off - 'ring free and glad, the
3.The LORD has sworn an oath which he will nev - er break: "You
4.His judg - ment will des - cend up - on the na - tions soon, the

5 E B/D# C#m7 B

til I put be - neath your feet your foes through - out the land." The day you lead your for - ces out in ho - ly ar - mor clad. As are a priest for ev - er - more like King Mel - chi - ze - dek." The bod - ies of their roy - al dead ac - ross the earth be strewn. By

9 A E A B

LORD ex - tends from Zion the scep - ter you shall wield: as - morn - ing's fer - tile womb brings cool, re - fresh - ing dew, your Lord's at your right hand: his day of wrath draws near when wat - er from the brook his strength will be re - stored; and

13 E B/D# C#m7 A E

sume your rule at his com - mand and all your foes shall yield.
youth shall flow in all its strength, un - tir - ing, ev - er new.
he will crush re - bel - lious kings and end their proud car - eer.
so he'll hold his head a - loft, the Conque - ring King and Lord.

psalm paraphrase: ©David Preston meter: Short Meter Doubled (6.6.8.6.D.)

music: Joel Stamooolis, 2017