

Psalm 112

D A D

1.Praise God! Blessed is the man who fears the LORD
 2.Rich - es and wealth with - in his house are found;
 3.Good is the man who gives and free - ly lends;
 4.Though bad news comes, he will not be a - fraid;

D G/B D A D

and finds de - light in fol - low - ing his word. His chil - dren will be migh - ty his right - eous - ness for ev - er will a - bound. The man who stands for mer - cy, to his af - fairs with jus - tice he at - tends. Sure - ly a right - eous man will his heart is firm; he trusts the LORD for aid. He will not be a - larmed, his

G/B D/A G D A D

in the land; his line will know the bles - sing of God's hand.
 truth and right will find the dark - ness turn to morn - ing light.
 stand se - cure; his mem - or - y for ev - er will en - dure.
 heart holds fast; he'll view his foes in tri - umph at the last.

5.He freely shares his riches with the poor;
 His righteousness for ever will endure.
 The LORD himself exalts his servant's name;
 He gives him strength and dignity and fame.

6.The wicked, seeing this, will feel dismay;
 He'll gnash his teeth and soon will waste away.
 The wicked and their dreams will come to naught;
 They never will enjoy what they have sought.

1.Praise God! Blessed is the man who fears the LORD
 And finds delight in following his word.
 His children will be mighty in the land;
 His line will know the blessing of God's hand.

psalm paraphrase: Sing Psalms, ©2003 Free Church of Scotland meter: 10.10.10.10.
music: Joel Stamoollis, 2017