

Psalm 122

A Song of Ascents

D A D A D A D Em A D

1. "To the LORD's house!" they were call - ing, and with joy I went with them.
2. To the LORD's name praise they of - fer, as for Is - ra - el de - creed.
3. For the sake of friends and broth - ers, "Peace be in you," I will say.

D A D A D A D Em A D

9

Now at last our feet are stand - ing in your gates, Je - ru - sa - lem.
There are set the thrones for judg - ment, thrones of Dav - id's roy - al seed.
For the sake of our God's tem - ple, I seek your pros - per - i - ty.

D A D A

17

See, Je - ru - sa - lem like a ci - ty built com - pact - ly, close and strong.
Pray for Zi - on's peace and safe - ty: "May your friends sec - ure - ly dwell;
"To the LORD's house!" they were call - ing, and with joy I went with them.

D A D A D Em D A D

25

That is where the tribes as - sem - ble, tribes which to__ the LORD be-long.
 peace with - in__ your walls con - tin - ue, strength with - in__ your cit - a del."
 Now at last__ our feet__ are stand - ing in your gates, Je - ru - sa - lem.

psalm paraphrase: Sing Psalms, ©2003 Free Church of Scotland meter: 8.7.8.7.D.

music: Rowland H. Prichard, 1830, HYFRDOL ("Come, Thou Long Expected Jesus")