

Psalm 52

To the choirmaster. A Maskil of David, when Doeg, the Edomite, came and told Saul, "David has come to the house of Ahimelech."

D C G D

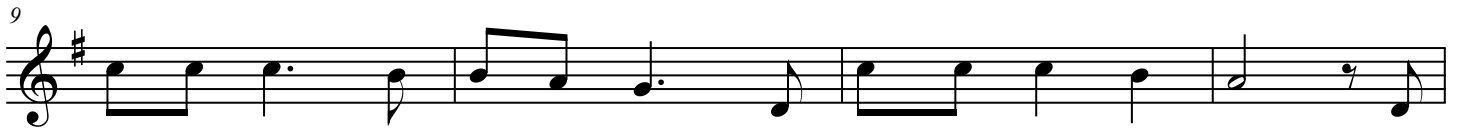

1. Why mighty hero, must you boast of cruelty and of crime, yet
2. But God will tear you clean away from all the wealth you own, from
3. But I am like an olive tree that thrives in God's domain, de-disregard God's steadfast love which lasts throughout all time? How home and family, life itself, to reap what you have sown. The pendent on his steadfast love whose power can never wane. I

D C G D

A m7 E m7 A m7 F

razor-sharp - your deadly tongue, what treachery you devise! You righteous will look on in awe, and with relief will say: 'We will forever give you praise for what your hand has done, hope cling to evil, hate the good and love pernicious lies.

D C G D

knew his trust was not in God, in wealth and greed it lay.'
in your name, and with your saints make all your goodness known.

psalm paraphrase: David Preston ©Jubilate Hymns meter: Common Meter Doubled (8.6.8.6.D.)

music: Joel Stamooolis ©2011
APPROACH, MY SOUL