

Psalm 109

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

Dm C B \flat F C Dm A sus A

last time to Coda Θ

O LORD, my God, de - liv - er me; save me, O God in your stead - fast love.

1.How-
2.How
3.How
4.How
5.How

Dm B \flat F C

6

wick - ed - ly they spread their lies and speak with vic - ious tongue! My ter - ri - bly will they be shamed when they are just - ly tried! Their fear - ful - ly we hear the doom on all their kith and kin! Their ten - der - ly the LORD will deal with us, when stalked by death! the grac - ious - ly your hand will bless when my ac - cus - ers curse! Dis -

Dm B \flat F C

8

prayer, my friend - ship they des - pise and do me ground - less wrong. I days are short - ened, prayers con - demned, ac - cus - er at their side. The work, their wealth, their name, their home all suf - fer for their sin; they woun - ded he will lift and heal, the fain - ting, fill with breath. I hon - our is their chos - en dress; their slan - ders you re - verse. I

Gm C F A sus A

10

1, 2, 3, 4, 5.

praise my God, but I im - plore: do not stay si - lent an - y - more! O trait - or dies in deep dis - grace, so let an - oth - er take his place.
did not bless and reaped the blame; they loved to curse and curs - es came.
plead your love, your name a - lone: save me, my God! Your power make known!
praise the LORD who judg - es them; when God de - fends, who shall con - demn?

Psalm 109

14 A sus A F C Dm A sus A Dm

love. Save me, O God in your stead-fast love. A - men.

psalm paraphrase: Christopher Idle ©Jubilate Hymns

meter: 8.6.8.6.8.8.

music and refrain: Joel Stamoolis, 2017