

Psalm 145

A Song of Praise. Of David.

D G D G D

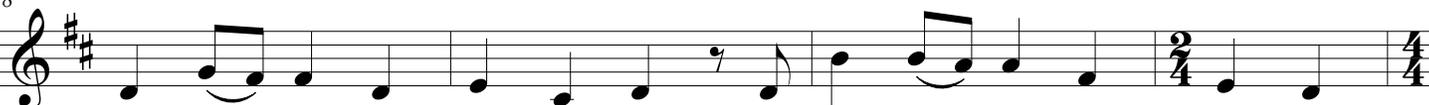

1. I will ex - alt you, God my King, for - ev - er — praise, for -
2. As par - ents to their child - ren tell how al - ways God does
3. Be - liev - ers trust and pray and prove the glor - ies — of your

A Bm G D F#7 Bm

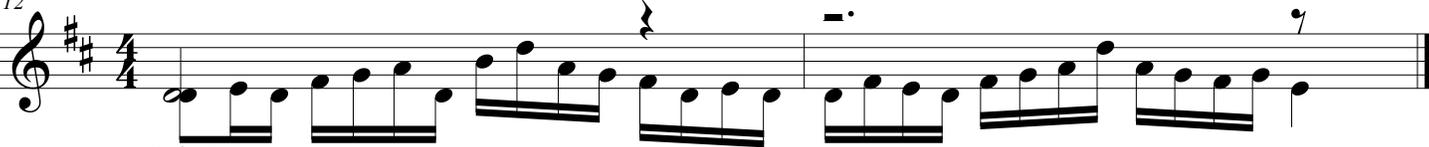

ev - er sing all glo - ry — to your treas - ured name: all all things well, so I de - light to med - i - tate how might - y love: our streets shall sing, our cit - ies bloom, your

G D A Bm G D A

praise, all — love, our hearts pro - claim, all praise, all — love our hearts pro - just you are, how good, how great, how just you are, how good how ev - er - last - ing king - dom come, your ev - er - last - ing king - dom

D A

claim!
great.
come!

4. In every promise God keeps faith;
you raise us, LORD, from sin and death:
you help the strugglers in the race-
redeemed, sustained, and crowned by grace,
redeemed, sustained, and crowned by grace.

5. By truth that shines in all your ways you guide your people all their days;
your loving care for humankind
ensures that all who seek shall find,
ensures that all who seek shall find.

6. How happy those who come to know your love so full, your wrath so slow!
You give us life and health and food:
to all so near; for all so good,
to all so near; for all so good.

7. As generations take their turn and saints in each your glory learn, your name be praised, and praised again,
and praised for evermore: Amen!
and praised for evermore: Amen!

psalm paraphrase: ©Christopher Idle/Jubilate Hymns meter: Long Meter (8.8.8.8) music: Joel Stamooolis, 2018