

Daniel 2

Main points

- We too are able to be like Daniel and help people interpret scripture or the pulling and prompting of God
- We too should be making bold moves for the sake of the gospel
- We need to know that believe the gospel and living a biblical life is a high stakes life that will come with risk
 - o Most often relational risks

Questions

Why do you think king Nebuchadnezzar cant understand his dream?

Why do you think the dream is being giving to a pagan king and not to Daniel the faithful prophet?

Why do you think the king is so serious at understanding the dream he has been given, to the point of putting people to death?

What can we learn from the prayer that Daniel prayed? About what he believed? About how we could pray better?

Who do you think is the ruler and author of truth and wisdom?

How do you think Daniel might have felt when he went before the king?

What are ways that we could share the truth of God to people within our sphere of influence?