MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

Each year holds its uncertainties and the hope of promise. My wife, Cindy, and I are looking forward to the birth of our ninth grandchild in a few weeks and all the promises a new baby brings. And as we look forward to 2022 at Fellowship, I'm hoping and praying we celebrate people entering into and recapturing a sense of new life in Christ, too.

God gave us a mission in the person and gospel of Jesus. We join Jesus in that mission when we make disciples that love God and love people everywhere, bringing the words of restoration to each other. That mission is not measured in numbers, though faithfulness to it should change them. Nor is it measured in dollars, though how we use them should be impacted.

But accomplishing for God what He gives us, because of what He's already given us, means pursuing in unity the focus of Jesus' teaching and God's Word. This year we begin with a fresh commitment to bringing the words of new life to a struggling world. May we be the people, with no power of our own but with all the power of the resurrection, who impact the communities around us for eternity.

Prayer Guide

January 09, 2022

Jesus as Rabbi – What is a Disciple?

That they might be with Him

Mark 3:14

Scripture Meditation

What New Years' resolutions did you make for this year? Some of us have resolved to be physically fit, or working towards being debt-free, or being more intentional with our spouses and/or kids. All these resolutions are beneficial and if we follow through, they will yield their desired outcomes. However, how many of us have made the commitment to become either first-time disciples (followers) or to renew with passion our following after Jesus? When Jesus calls us to follow Him, He is saying: "Come, be my disciple..." This implies that we are "steadily learning from Him how to live the life of the Kingdom of Heaven into every corner of human existence." The best resolution you and I can make is to follow Jesus, be His disciples, who then go forth and make other disciples. Please pray that each of us at Fellowship would aim to be disciples of Jesus as we learn to listen to, love, and obey Him.

Congregation Prayer and Praises

Hugh Brown - Please pray that my family will get over the hurt and the pain of the loss of our dad.

Kent Wistrand - Please pray for Angelina (lives in Mexico) 50 yrs. old has pulmonary problems and is diabetic. Her sugar level was at 400. Please pray God is with her and that the doctors will be able to give her the care she needs.

Eddie Martinez - Please pray for my family. I am having a bad episode with Parkinson at this time. I am unable to function, talking is difficult and I'm shaking really bad. Please continue to pray for my wife Maria who has cancer and my son Eddie Jr who was in a motorcycle accident and has brain damage from it.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

Thank You God for these children! I give you praise because children are a heritage of you. They are the fruit of the womb and a reward, like arrows in the hand of a warrior. I ask You to bless our children, Lord, that they too might experience Your grace. I thank You for blessing every Children's Ministry leader with them! I pray that they will never forget that these children are special in Your eyes; let every Children's Ministry leader see them as Your heritage.

STUDENT MINISTRY

Dear Lord, Lights, trees, gifts, bows, carols, elves on shelves – these are fun traditions to get us excited about Christmas. However, it is easy to get wrapped up and distracted by all the things that are vying for our hearts and attention. Would you help us to refocus on hearts and our hopes on the greatest gift that you've given this season: the birth of your Son. Because Jesus is our Immanuel – we can rest easy and rejoice greatly! May the hope and peace of Christ dwell deeply in our hearts. As it does, may it embolden us to give generously and share the gift of your Son with those around us. Amen!

MISSIONARIES

Please pray for the missionary families and organizations we support around the world. Pray for wisdom, strength, and vision for each of them as they faithfully share the gospel and disciple people around the world. Pray also for them personally: for their health, family relationships and personal growth in their walk with Christ. A list of these missionaries is attached for you to help you as you pray.
