HELPING PEOPLE THRIVE IN GOD'S ABUNDANT LIFE

Commissioned as a missionary by the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship in 2014, Scarlette Jasper serves in areas of persistent poverty in South Central and Southeastern Kentucky and Scott County Tennessee. She serves among the homeless population and working poor, families in medical crisis, survivors of domestic violence, the elderly and disabled, and families in financial crisis. Scarlette's ministry interfaces with CBF's Together for Hope Initiative.

Scarlette is married to C. Brian Jasper. They have three children: Roger (and Jessica) Jasper, Layla (and Aaron), and Amoreena Jasper. Scarlette was born in Fayetteville, North Carolina, but has lived from Florida to Alaska. After living here over 30 years, she considers Kentucky her home.

Scarlette has been involved with nonprofit work for 30 years. She is the director of Olive Branch Ministries, a nonprofit based in Somerset, Kentucky. Major projects are Christmas Shoe Boxes for Appalachia, back to school events, literacy walks, nutrition education, and financial literacy, as well as a partnership with CBF KY for Extreme Build in McCreary County.

Scarlette went to Baptist Seminary of Kentucky and got her Master of Divinity with a concentration of Pastoral Care and counseling. She was ordained in May 2016 and was the recipient of the Baptist Women in Ministry 2018 Addie Davis Award for outstanding leadership and ministry. Scarlette loves to share with congregations, mission groups, and Sunday's schools, about her work and CBF Global Missions. She also raises her own projects and programs.

Scarlette is thankful for her opportunity for Christ to use her for his Kingdom.
