Benevolence Offering: People of our community who have fallen on hard times come to our Church Office hoping to receive assistance with their household expenses. They may need help with rental payments, utility bills, prescription medications, or any number of serious and legitimate needs. The Benevolent Offering helps First Baptist Church to be able to say, "Yes, we can help!" Thank you for sharing in this benevolent offering at the end of the service. This is yet another way we can help people thrive in God's abundant life.
