

DAILY LITURGY

Opening Prayer:

Holy God, I praise Your good name. You alone have brought me from death to life. May the Holy Spirit guard my heart and lessen my pride that I might better serve my neighbor. In the Name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

Apostles Creed:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit
and born of the virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended to heaven
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty.

From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic* church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer of Confession:

Merciful God, I have sinned against you in thought, word and deed. I have failed to love you and my neighbor. Forgive me of these sins I have committed and the pride that binds me. Wash me clean, O Lord, and renew a right spirit within me. In the Name of Jesus, AMEN.

Scripture Reading: Psm. 119:1-8

How does this passage shape our understanding of obedience—not as perfection, but as a committed relationship with God—and what does faithful living look like when we fall short?

Scripture Reading: Joshua 3:1-17

What does this story teach us about the relationship between obedience and faith, and how do we respond when God asks us to step forward before we can see the outcome?

Scripture Reading: Mat. 28:1-10

Why do you think fear and joy coexist in this moment, and how does this passage shape the way we respond when God brings life and hope into places we least expect?

Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Benediction:

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you;

the Lord turn his face toward you
and give you peace. AMEN.

-Numbers 6:23-24
