

DAILY LITURGY

Opening Prayer:

Govern everything by your wisdom, O Lord, so that my soul may always be serving you in the way you will and not as I choose. Let me die to myself so that I may serve you; let me live to you who are life itself. In the Name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

Apostles Creed:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit
and born of the virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended to heaven
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty.

From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic* church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer of Confession:

Merciful God, I have sinned against you in thought, word and deed. I have failed to love you and my neighbor. Forgive me of these sins I have committed and the pride that binds me. Wash me clean, O Lord, and renew a right spirit within me.

In the Name of Jesus, AMEN.

Scripture Reading: Psm. 96

What does this psalm teach us about the connection between worship and witness, and how might it challenge the way we understand our role as God's people in the world today?

Scripture Reading: Exd. 24:1-18

What does this passage teach us about the seriousness of covenant commitment, and how does it shape our understanding of obedience and relationship with God today?

Scripture Reading: Col. 2:8-23

What are some modern ways Christians can be subtly drawn away from the sufficiency of Christ, and how does this passage call us back to a faith grounded in Him rather than rules, philosophies, or appearances of wisdom?

Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Benediction:

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you;
the Lord turn his face toward you
and give you peace. AMEN.
