

DAILY LITURGY

Opening Prayer:

Loving Father, great is your mercy that is new every morning. Forgive me for the sins I have committed and cleanse my heart. Teach me walk humbly in Your ways and to show mercy to others just as You have show mercy to me. In the Name of Jesus. Amen.

Apostles Creed:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended to heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty.

From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic* church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer of Confession:

Merciful God, I have sinned against you in thought, word and deed. I have failed to love you and my neighbor. Forgive me of these sins I have committed and the pride that binds me. Wash me clean, O Lord, and renew a right spirit within me. In the Name of Jesus, AMEN.

Scripture Reading: Psm. 23:1-6

The psalmist declares the unwavering promises of God. These promises are for those who put their full trust in Him. What, if anything, is preventing you from putting your full trust in God?

Scripture Reading: 1 Sam. 15:22-31

The Lord gave specific instructions to follow.

And yet, the one instruction Saul was to always follow was to walk humbly before the Lord. Instead, Saul erected a monument in his own honor. If we fail to walk humbly before God, then we face judgement. Are you humble before God?

Scripture Reading: Eph. 4:25-32

The Apostle Paul reminds us that we are one body and as such, we should treat each other with compassion and respect.

The Apostle Paul encourages us to rid ourselves of evil intent and submit wholly to Christ. What should you rid yourself of this day?

Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Benediction:

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you;

the Lord turn his face toward you
and give you peace. AMEN.

-Numbers 6:23-24
