

DAILY LITURGY

Opening Prayer:

Holy God, let Your mercy and justice flow over me. Teach me to be obedient to Your Word and to live out Your commandments. In the Name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

Apostles Creed:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit
and born of the virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended to heaven
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty.

From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic* church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer of Confession:

Merciful God, I have sinned against you in thought, word and deed. I have failed to love you and my neighbor. Forgive me of these sins I have committed and the pride that binds me. Wash me clean, O Lord, and renew a right spirit within me. In the Name of Jesus, AMEN.

Scripture Reading: Psm. 86:1-10

David asks God to hear, answer, and preserve him, showing dependence on God. What does it look like to rely on God as fully as David does, and what makes that kind of dependence challenging in our lives today?

Scripture Reading: Exodus 12:43-49

What does this teach us about holiness, belonging, and what it means to be part of God's people today?

Scripture Reading: Hebrews 2:5-9

What does this teach us about our identity and purpose, and how does Jesus reshape our understanding of both?

Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Benediction:

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you;
the Lord turn his face toward you
and give you peace. AMEN.

-Numbers 6:23-24
